Introduction to the 2026-2 Edition of Environmental Insurance Litigation—Practice Forms

This edition of Environmental Insurance Litigation: Practice Forms reflects the most recent, leading-edge developments in environmental insurance law, including a revised Appendix E providing discussion for many topics, covering:

- New Section on Radioactive Matter Exclusion
- Absolute/Total Pollution Exclusion
- Bad Faith
- Choice of Law
- Duty to Defend
- Duty to Indemnify
- Modern Pollution Liability Insurance
- Procedure
- Silica
- Cleanup Costs as "Damages" Because of Property Damage
- First Party Property Insurance

Visit Environmental Insurance Litigation & Practice Forms on Thomson Reuters Westlaw: Insert the terms ENVIRONMENTAL INSURANCE in the Search box and select Environmental Insurance Litigation: Practice Forms from the dropdown menu.