

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. FINAL TRIAL PREPARATION AND MOTIONS

I. TRIAL SCHEDULING

- § 1:1 Assignment of cases governed by local rules
- § 1:2 Placing cases on trial docket
- § 1:3 —Perfecting the right to a jury trial; time to request a jury
- § 1:4 Deposit or cost bond prerequisite to placing a case on the jury trial docket
- § 1:5 —Time when bond required to be filed
- § 1:6 Deposit—Time when deposit required to be made—
Amount of deposit
- § 1:7 Answer filed before case set for trial
- § 1:8 —Exceptions
- § 1:9 Notice of trial governed by local rules
- § 1:10 Preferences in trial setting
- § 1:11 Dismissal for plaintiff's failure to appear at trial
- § 1:12 Dismissal for failure to prosecute
- § 1:13 —When three-year period begins
- § 1:14 —Examples of exceptions to Article 561 rule of abandonment
- § 1:15 —Taking a “step”
- § 1:16 —Examples of taking a “step”
- § 1:17 —Examples of not taking a “step”
- § 1:18 —Waiver
- § 1:19 Revival
- § 1:20 Examples of abandonment

II. CONTINUANCES

- § 1:21 Introduction; current policies
- § 1:22 Grounds for a continuance
- § 1:23 —Peremptory grounds
- § 1:24 — —Requirement of diligence
- § 1:25 — —Material witness
- § 1:26 —Discretionary grounds
- § 1:27 —Effect of agreement
- § 1:28 Motion requirement
- § 1:29 Examples where party entitled to continuance

§ 1:30 Trial of motion

III. COMPELLING ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES/ PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE AT TRIAL

- § 1:31 Subpoenaing witnesses
- § 1:32 Form of subpoena
- § 1:33 Mechanics of obtaining a subpoena
- § 1:34 Restrictions on subpoenas
  - § 1:35 —Lawyers
  - § 1:36 —State officials
  - § 1:37 —Physicians
- § 1:38 Witness fees
  - § 1:39 —Payment by clerk after witness appears
  - § 1:40 —Expert witnesses
  - § 1:41 — —Examples
- § 1:42 Service
  - § 1:43 —On attorney of record
  - § 1:44 —On police or fire department
  - § 1:45 —On corporations
  - § 1:46 —Using long arm statute
  - § 1:47 —Mail service
  - § 1:48 —By long arm statute
- § 1:49 Trial subpoena of documents or evidence
  - § 1:50 —Relationship to discovery
  - § 1:51 —Attaching description of facts to be proven
  - § 1:52 —Subpoena of medical records in lieu of testimony of physician

IV. MOTIONS IN LIMINE

- § 1:53 Policy
- § 1:54 Purpose
  - § 1:55 —Procedure
  - § 1:56 —Service
  - § 1:57 —Hearing
- § 1:58 Common subjects of motions in limine

V. FINAL TRIAL PREPARATION

- § 1:59 Case re-evaluation for trial—Attempts to settle
- § 1:60 Trial depositions
- § 1:61 Updating the pretrial order
- § 1:62 Requests for admissions
  - § 1:63 —Points for which admissions should often be requested

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|        |                                                              |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 1:64 | Testimony of treating physician                              |
| § 1:65 | Legal research                                               |
| § 1:66 | Settlement letters                                           |
| § 1:67 | Photographic enlargements and other demonstrative aids       |
| § 1:68 | Physical organization of the file                            |
| § 1:69 | —Exhibit list                                                |
| § 1:70 | —Witness list                                                |
| § 1:71 | Planning for assistance at trial                             |
| § 1:72 | Having equipment ready and being familiar with its operation |
| § 1:73 | Organizing witness appearances                               |
| § 1:74 | Checking on subpoenas                                        |
| § 1:75 | Pretrial memoranda                                           |
| § 1:76 | Verdict form                                                 |

VI. PREPARING THE TESTIMONY OF THE CLIENT AND ASSOCIATES

|        |                                                         |
|--------|---------------------------------------------------------|
| § 1:77 | Generally                                               |
| § 1:78 | —Demeanor                                               |
| § 1:79 | Rehearse direct examination                             |
| § 1:80 | —Review of depositions                                  |
| § 1:81 | —Review of exhibits                                     |
| § 1:82 | Preparing the testimony of family members of the client |

VII. PREPARING CROSS-EXAMINATION

|        |           |
|--------|-----------|
| § 1:83 | Generally |
|--------|-----------|

VIII. FINAL MATTERS

|        |                   |
|--------|-------------------|
| § 1:84 | Voir dire         |
| § 1:85 | Opening statement |
| § 1:86 | Closing argument  |
| § 1:87 | Jury instructions |

IX. CHECKLISTS

|        |                                                       |
|--------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| § 1:88 | Matters typically certified in request for trial date |
| § 1:89 | Case re-evaluation for trial                          |

X. FORMS

|        |                                                                                |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 1:90 | Motion in limine                                                               |
| § 1:91 | Motion in limine/Daubert motion, or in the Alternative, Motion for Continuance |

- § 1:92 Motion in limine/Daubert motion to exclude testimony of medical expert
- § 1:93 Emergency rule for contempt and motion to compel citing Articles 1354(G) and 1357
- § 1:94 Pretrial memorandums—Plaintiff's pretrial memorandum
- § 1:95 —Defendant's pretrial memorandum
- § 1:96 Request for trial on merits
- § 1:97 Motion to dismiss for want of prosecution
- § 1:98 Request for admissions
- § 1:99 Motion In Limine, to take expert witness out of turn
- § 1:100 Ex parte motion, affidavit, and order of dismissal for abandonment

CHAPTER 2. TRIAL STRUCTURE AND CONDUCT

I. GENERAL RULES

- § 2:1 Trial conducted in open court
- § 2:2 Sealed records
- § 2:3 —Good cause
- § 2:4 Right to a public trial; exclusion of public and press; trials generally not televised
- § 2:5 Side bar conferences
- § 2:6 Stenographic reporting of proceedings

II. STRUCTURE OF THE TRIAL SUBPART

- § 2:7 Usual order or elements of pretrial order
- § 2:8 Motions
- § 2:9 Multiple parties and multiple witnesses
- § 2:10 Notice of trial
- § 2:11 —Examples
- § 2:12 Normal order of trial
- § 2:13 Opening statements
- § 2:14 —Plaintiff's opening statement
- § 2:15 —Defendant's opening statement
- § 2:16 Plaintiff's case in chief
- § 2:17 —Direct examination of witnesses
- § 2:18 — —Admissibility of evidence
- § 2:19 — —Countering a proffer
- § 2:20 —Cross-examination of witnesses
- § 2:21 —Rebuttal
- § 2:22 — —Examples

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|        |                                                    |
|--------|----------------------------------------------------|
| § 2:23 | Defendant's case in chief                          |
| § 2:24 | —Direct examination of witnesses                   |
| § 2:25 | —Cross-examination of witnesses                    |
| § 2:26 | Motion for direct verdict                          |
| § 2:27 | Closing argument                                   |
| § 2:28 | Reopening case                                     |
| § 2:29 | —Examples                                          |
| § 2:30 | Jury instructions                                  |
| § 2:31 | Deliberation and judgment                          |
| § 2:32 | —Jury verdict                                      |
| § 2:33 | —Special verdicts and interrogatories              |
| § 2:34 | — —Legal cause                                     |
| § 2:35 | — —Comparative fault                               |
| § 2:36 | —Judgment                                          |
| § 2:37 | Post-judgment motions                              |
| § 2:38 | —Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict   |
| § 2:39 | —Motion for new trial                              |
| § 2:40 | —Motion for additur or remittitur                  |
| § 2:41 | Suspensive and devolutive appeals                  |
| § 2:42 | —A judicial mortgage                               |
| § 2:43 | — —Collection of judgment against movable property |
| § 2:44 | — —To execute under a judgment                     |
| § 2:45 | Limitations on jury trials                         |
| § 2:46 | Admiralty issues                                   |
| § 2:47 | State as a defendant                               |
| § 2:48 | Jury request must be timely                        |
| § 2:49 | Issues a jury tries                                |
| § 2:50 | Separate trial of separate issues                  |
| § 2:51 | —Case application of C.C.P. art. 1562              |

III. CONDUCT OF THE JUDGE

|        |                                                |
|--------|------------------------------------------------|
| § 2:52 | Power, generally                               |
| § 2:53 | Duties, generally                              |
| § 2:54 | Ruling on admissibility of evidence, generally |
| § 2:55 | —Under Louisiana Code of Evidence              |
| § 2:56 | —Examples of error in admitting evidence       |
| § 2:57 | Charging jury                                  |
| § 2:58 | Conduct during trial                           |
| § 2:59 | —When conduct is reversible error              |
| § 2:60 | Maintaining control of courtroom               |
| § 2:61 | Impartiality                                   |
| § 2:62 | —Presumption                                   |
| § 2:63 | —Avoid ex parte contacts                       |
| § 2:64 | —Judge not investigator                        |

- § 2:65 —Self-represented litigants
- § 2:66 —Comments by judge
- § 2:67 — —Assist jury, not control findings
- § 2:68 — —Humor or sarcasm
- § 2:69 — —Evidence or credibility of witnesses
- § 2:70 — —Examples
- § 2:71 —Post-trial before judgment recusal of judge
- § 2:72 Questioning of witness by court
- § 2:73 —Duty of court as to unrepresented party
- § 2:74 Conducting legal research
- § 2:75 Acting without request of party
- § 2:76 Conduct toward deliberating jury

IV. CONDUCT OF THE ATTORNEY

- § 2:77 Decorum, generally
- § 2:78 Local rules
- § 2:79 Familiarity with courtroom procedures
- § 2:80 Location of counsel; parties
- § 2:81 Requirement of candor
- § 2:82 Making false statements of material facts or law
- § 2:83 Failing to disclose fact necessary to avoid illegal or fraudulent or criminal act by the client
- § 2:84 Failing to disclose contrary legal authority
- § 2:85 Offering false evidence
- § 2:86 Limitations on conduct
- § 2:87 Communications with adverse party
- § 2:88 Ex parte communications with court
- § 2:89 Trial publicity
- § 2:90 Court personnel
- § 2:91 Minute clerk
- § 2:92 Official court reporter
- § 2:93 Crier or bailiff
- § 2:94 No gratuities

V. CONDUCT OF JURORS

- § 2:95 Misconduct
- § 2:96 Examples
- § 2:97 —Court officials affecting jury
- § 2:98 —Contact with parties
- § 2:99 —Contact with witnesses
- § 2:100 —Notetaking
- § 2:101 —Exposure to case through media
- § 2:102 —Late for court

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 2:103 Procedure for dealing with misconduct
- § 2:104 —Objection
- § 2:105 —Motion for mistrial

VI. CONTEMPT

- § 2:106 Definition
- § 2:107 Types of contempt
- § 2:108 Civil
- § 2:109 Criminal
- § 2:110 Direct
- § 2:111 Constructive
- § 2:112 Acts constituting contempt
- § 2:113 Misbehavior in presence of court
- § 2:114 —Insolent behavior
- § 2:115 —Breach of peace or decorum
- § 2:116 Failure to comply with subpoena
- § 2:117 —Failure to be sworn or to testify
- § 2:118 Disobedience of court order
- § 2:119 —Examples of disobedience
- § 2:120 —Examples of no disobedience
- § 2:121 Removal of person or property from court's jurisdiction
- § 2:122 Abuse of process
- § 2:123 Detention of witness, party or attorney
- § 2:124 Procedure
- § 2:125 Summary contempt
- § 2:126 —Applicable only to direct contempts
- § 2:127 —Oral opportunity to be heard in defense or mitigation
- § 2:128 —Court order
- § 2:129 Constructive contempt; need for trial
- § 2:130 —Rule to show cause
- § 2:131 — —Issuance on court's motion or request by party
- § 2:132 — —Content
- § 2:133 — —Service
- § 2:134 —Request for oral hearing
- § 2:135 —Hearing
- § 2:136 —Order
- § 2:137 —Sufficient recitation of facts
- § 2:138 Punishment
- § 2:139 Fine
- § 2:140 Imprisonment
- § 2:141 Contempt by attorney
- § 2:142 Review of conviction

§ 2:143 Examples of punishment for contempt

VII. CHECKLIST

§ 2:144 Supervisory appellate jurisdiction during trial

VIII. FORMS

§ 2:145 Petition of intervention—By surviving family members

§ 2:146 —By insurer in connection with employment-related injury

§ 2:147 Motion to file exhibit under seal

CHAPTER 3. THE JURY TRIAL: INITIAL PROCEDURES

I. IN GENERAL

§ 3:1 Right to trial by jury

§ 3:2 —Instances where plaintiff found not entitled to jury trial

§ 3:3 Demand prior to trial

§ 3:4 Trial by consent

§ 3:5 Special or advisory juries

§ 3:6 Jury bond and cost deposits

§ 3:7 —The jury bond

§ 3:8 —Cash deposit in lieu of bond

§ 3:9 —Party making deposit

§ 3:10 —Disbursement of funds for jury costs

§ 3:11 —Orleans Parish

§ 3:12 —Local rules

II. WHO MAY SERVE AS A JUROR

§ 3:13 Qualifications

§ 3:14 —Citizenship and residence

§ 3:15 —Age

§ 3:16 —Language

§ 3:17 —Mental or physical infirmity

§ 3:18 —Deafness

§ 3:19 —Interpreter for the deaf

§ 3:20 —Felonies

§ 3:21 Discretion of court to disqualify

§ 3:22 Impermissible factors

§ 3:23 Exemptions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:24 —Rule prior to 1994
- § 3:25 —Present exclusions

III. SELECTING AND SUMMONING PROSPECTIVE JURORS

- § 3:26 Jury commissions
- § 3:27 —Composition of commission
- § 3:28 The general venire
- § 3:29 —Developing the general venire
- § 3:30 Central jury pools
- § 3:31 —One day/one trial jury system
- § 3:32 The petit jury venire
- § 3:33 The petit jury venire (excluding Orleans Parish)—
Summoning the venire
- § 3:34 —Excusal
- § 3:35 —Return of general venire box
- § 3:36 Jury service in multiparish judicial districts
- § 3:37 Tales jurors
- § 3:38 Duty to attend; penalties; petit and tales jurors
- § 3:39 Petit and tales jurors: Orleans Parish
- § 3:40 Challenges to general or petit jury venire as a whole
- § 3:41 Challenges to general or petit jury venire as a whole;
grounds—Fair cross-section requirement
- § 3:42 —Time for challenge
- § 3:43 —Burden of proof
- § 3:44 Juror compensation, generally
- § 3:45 Orleans Parish

IV. SELECTION OF JURY

- § 3:46 Number of jurors
- § 3:47 —Number required for verdict
- § 3:48 —Alternate jurors
- § 3:49 — —Purpose of alternate jurors
- § 3:50 — —Functioning of alternate jurors
- § 3:51 — —Discharge of alternate jurors
- § 3:52 — —Illustrations where court did not provide for
- § 3:53 Examination of jurors (voir dire)
- § 3:54 —Examination of alternate jurors
- § 3:55 —Swearing of prospective jurors
- § 3:56 —Conduct of the examination
- § 3:57 — —Examination by the court
- § 3:58 — —Examination by counsel
- § 3:59 —Scope of examination

- § 3:60 — —Objectives of counsel voir dire
- § 3:61 — — —Identifying “bad” jurors
- § 3:62 — — —Get the prospective jurors to do most of the talking
- § 3:63 — — —Get the “bad” jurors sent home
- § 3:64 — — —Inspire jurors to care about your case
- § 3:65 — —General areas of inquiry
- § 3:66 Challenges for cause
- § 3:67 —Grounds
- § 3:68 — —Lack of qualifications
- § 3:69 — —Bias
- § 3:70 — — —Examples where challenge based on bias denied
- § 3:71 — — —Examples where challenge based on bias granted
- § 3:72 — —Relationship to party or counsel
- § 3:73 — —Prior jury service on same or related case
- § 3:74 — —Asserting the fifth amendment privilege
- § 3:75 —Constitutional issues
- § 3:76 —Number of challenges
- § 3:77 —Time for challenge
- § 3:78 Appellate review
- § 3:79 Peremptory challenges
- § 3:80 —Number of challenges
- § 3:81 — —Allocation of peremptories among multiple parties
- § 3:82 — —Alternate jurors
- § 3:83 — — —What constitutes a “side”
- § 3:84 —Time of challenge
- § 3:85 —Method of challenge
- § 3:86 — —Effect of passing challenge
- § 3:87 —Batson challenges
- § 3:88 — —Illustrations
- § 3:89 —Batson challenges
- § 3:90 Using a jury consultant
- § 3:91 Sample voir dire—Plaintiff’s in lawsuit against pharmaceutical company
- § 3:92 —Domestic violence cases
- § 3:93 —Third party defendant is attorney

V. FORMS

- § 3:94 Motions—To withdraw trial by jury
- § 3:95 —To strike jury demand
- § 3:96 —To prohibit allegations by defense in voir dire

CHAPTER 4. THE OPENING STATEMENT

I. PURPOSE AND SIGNIFICANCE OF OPENING STATEMENT

- § 4:1 Objectives of opening statement
- § 4:2 —Inform the jury in general way of nature of case and basic facts
- § 4:3 —Identify theory of case and key themes
- § 4:4 Primacy and recency
- § 4:5 Contrasting purpose of statement and argument
- § 4:6 Trial court's discretion in controlling counsel's arguments
- § 4:7 Necessity of creating visual image
- § 4:8 Establish rapport with jury
- § 4:9 Influence outcome of case
- § 4:10 Dealing with weaknesses in your case
- § 4:11 Significance of opening statement
- § 4:12 —Jury trials
- § 4:13 — —Introduce everyone
- § 4:14 — —Facts of case
- § 4:15 — — —Beginning
- § 4:16 — — —Middle
- § 4:17 — — —End
- § 4:18 —Non-jury trials

II. PRESENTING THE OPENING STATEMENT

- § 4:19 Right or duty to make an opening statement
- § 4:20 —When to waive or reserve an opening statement
- § 4:21 Sequence for making opening statement
- § 4:22 —Special circumstances
- § 4:23 —Additional parties
- § 4:24 — —Division of time among parties
- § 4:25 — —Cross-claims, reconvention demands, and other incidental actions among multiple parties
- § 4:26 Delivering the opening statement
- § 4:27 —Practice your opening statement
- § 4:28 — —In front of mirror
- § 4:29 — —Live audience
- § 4:30 — —Eye contact
- § 4:31 — —Hand gestures
- § 4:32 — —Practicing in courtroom
- § 4:33 — — —Microphones
- § 4:34 — —Excuses for not practicing

- § 4:35 —Beginning the opening statement
- § 4:36 — —Demonstrate respect for everyone in court
- § 4:37 —Show confidence
- § 4:38 —Avoid reading from written notes
- § 4:39 —Physical movement
- § 4:40 — —Establishing courtroom presence
- § 4:41 — — —Lecterns
- § 4:42 — — —Blackboards
- § 4:43 — — —Demonstrative aids
- § 4:44 — —Maintain conversational distance
- § 4:45 — —Move to address different jurors
- § 4:46 —Eye contact
- § 4:47 — —Natural expression
- § 4:48 — —Avoid artificial rules
- § 4:49 — —Distractions
- § 4:50 — — —“Transference phenomenon”
- § 4:51 — — —Recognizing and disarming transference
- § 4:52 —Duration
- § 4:53 —Harassment or interruption of counsel delivering statement
- § 4:54 —Losing your train of thought

III. CONTENTS OF OPENING STATEMENT

- § 4:55 Be succinct
- § 4:56 —Briefly discuss nature of action and facts
- § 4:57 Control by court
- § 4:58 —Exposition of law might not be permissible
- § 4:59 Content
- § 4:60 —What the evidence will establish
- § 4:61 — —Reference to inadmissible evidence
- § 4:62 — —Effect of not presenting promised evidence
- § 4:63 —Limitations on content
- § 4:64 — —Settlements
- § 4:65 — —Insurance coverage
- § 4:66 — —Plaintiff’s social, economic, racial or cultural deprivation
- § 4:67 — —The “Golden Rule”

IV. OBJECTING TO OPENING STATEMENT

- § 4:68 When and how to object
- § 4:69 —Where untimely objections permitted
- § 4:70 Instructions to jury
- § 4:71 Mistrial

TABLE OF CONTENTS

V. DISMISSAL ON OPENING STATEMENT

§ 4:72 Generally

VI. CHECKLISTS

§ 4:73 Contents of the opening statement

§ 4:74 Grounds for objecting to opening statements

CHAPTER 5. EVIDENCE: BURDEN OF PROOF, ADMISSIBILITY AND OBJECTIONS

I. BURDEN OF PROOF

§ 5:1 Evidence defined

§ 5:2 —Plaintiff has burden of proof of all essential elements of claim

§ 5:3 Personal injury suits—Causal relationship

§ 5:4 Products liability suits

§ 5:5 Medical malpractice

§ 5:6 —Defendant's burden

§ 5:7 Food poisoning

§ 5:8 Workers' compensation

§ 5:9 —Defendant has burden of proof of all essential elements of defense

§ 5:10 To enforce a claim under uninsured motorist provisions of automobile liability policy

§ 5:11 Negligence claim brought against merchant by person lawfully on premises

§ 5:12 Suit for unpaid wages

§ 5:13 Shift in burden of proof

§ 5:14 Presumptions

§ 5:15 —Not conclusive

§ 5:16 —Cases holding that adverse presumption did not apply

§ 5:17 —Conclusive presumptions

§ 5:18 —Rebutting

§ 5:19 Burden of persuasion

§ 5:20 —The preponderance of the evidence standard

§ 5:21 —Clear and convincing evidence

II. ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE

§ 5:22 Introduction to the Louisiana Code of Evidence

§ 5:23 Applicability of the Code of Evidence

§ 5:24 Practical differences between jury and bench trials

- § 5:25 Preliminary questions
- § 5:26 —Admissibility generally
- § 5:27 —Competency as witness
- § 5:28 —Scope of determination
- § 5:29 — —Standard of proof in evidentiary determinations
- § 5:30 —Hearing of jury
- § 5:31 —Effect of preliminary finding of admissibility
- § 5:32 Limited admissibility generally
- § 5:33 —Admissible only as to certain party
- § 5:34 — —Court must instruct jury on request
- § 5:35 — — —Waiver of limiting instruction
- § 5:36 Relevancy
- § 5:37 —Probative of issues to be proven
- § 5:38 — —Damages
- § 5:39 —Facts of consequence to action
- § 5:40 General rule that relevant evidence is admissible
- § 5:41 Evidence of similar crimes, wrongs, or acts in certain civil actions
- § 5:42 Evidence of victim's attire in sexual assault cases
- § 5:43 Evidence of similar crimes, wrongs, or acts in domestic abuse cases and cruelty against juveniles
- § 5:44 Exclusion of relevant evidence
- § 5:45 —Prejudice, confusion or waste of time
- § 5:46 — —Unfair prejudice
- § 5:47 — — —Repeated prior claims
- § 5:48 —Confusion of issues
- § 5:49 —Mislead jury
- § 5:50 —Delay and cumulative evidence
- § 5:51 —Character evidence generally
- § 5:52 — —Credibility of witness
- § 5:53 — —Evidence of crimes, wrongs, or acts
- § 5:54 — —Evidence of creative or artistic expression
- § 5:55 — —Evidence of crimes, wrongs, or acts—Motive
- § 5:56 — — —Opportunity
- § 5:57 — — —Intent
- § 5:58 — — —Preparation
- § 5:59 — — —Plan
- § 5:60 — — —Knowledge
- § 5:61 — — —Identity
- § 5:62 — — —Absence of mistake or accident
- § 5:63 — —Methods of proving character
- § 5:64 — — —Reputation, opinion or conviction
- § 5:65 — — —Specific instances of conduct
- § 5:66 — — —Foundation for testimony
- § 5:67 —Evidence of habit or routine practice

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|        |                                                                                |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 5:68 | — —Distinguished from character                                                |
| § 5:69 | — —Method of proving habit                                                     |
| § 5:70 | — —Case applications                                                           |
| § 5:71 | —Evidence of prior incidents                                                   |
| § 5:72 | — —Products liability actions                                                  |
| § 5:73 | —Evidence of subsequent remedial measures                                      |
| § 5:74 | — —Examples of admissible purpose                                              |
| § 5:75 | —Evidence of settlement offers, negotiations, oramounts paid in settlement |
| § 5:76 | — —When admissible                                                             |
| § 5:77 | — —Examples                                                                    |
| § 5:78 | — —Admissible evidence disclosed in negotiations                               |
| § 5:79 | —Evidence of payment of medical and similarexpenses generally              |
| § 5:80 | — —Examples                                                                    |
| § 5:81 | —Pleas, plea discussions and related statements                                |
| § 5:82 | —Liability insurance                                                           |
| § 5:83 | —Settlement or tender                                                          |
| § 5:84 | —Workers' compensation benefits                                                |
| § 5:85 | —Illegal adoption                                                              |
| § 5:86 | —Non-use of seatbelt                                                           |
| § 5:87 | Parol or extrinsic evidence                                                    |
| § 5:88 | —Parol evidence rule                                                           |
| § 5:89 | — —Examples of application                                                     |
| § 5:90 | —Oral contracts                                                                |
| § 5:91 | Extrajudicial admissions                                                       |
| § 5:92 | Motion in limine                                                               |

III. PRIVILEGES

|         |                                    |
|---------|------------------------------------|
| § 5:93  | Scope of privileges                |
| § 5:94  | Privilege defined                  |
| § 5:95  | Effect                             |
| § 5:96  | Waiver of privilege                |
| § 5:97  | —Waiver as personal; joint holders |
| § 5:98  | —Manner                            |
| § 5:99  | Reference to exercise of privilege |
| § 5:100 | Lawyer-client privilege            |
| § 5:101 | —Definitions                       |
| § 5:102 | — —Client                          |
| § 5:103 | — —Lawyer                          |
| § 5:104 | — —Representative of client        |
| § 5:105 | — —Representative of lawyer        |
| § 5:106 | — —Confidential communication      |

LOUISIANA CIVIL TRIAL PROCEDURE

- § 5:107 — — —Privilege not extended to incidental information
- § 5:108 —Scope of privilege
- § 5:109 —What communications are privileged
- § 5:110 —Waiver of privilege
- § 5:111 —Who may claim privilege
- § 5:112 — —Client may refuse to disclose communication
- § 5:113 — —Prohibition on subpoena to lawyer seeking privileged information
- § 5:114 —Effect of determination
- § 5:115 — —Crime and fraud
- § 5:116 — —Claim through deceased client
- § 5:117 — —Breach of duty between lawyer and client
- § 5:118 — —Authenticity of document signed by attorney
- § 5:119 — —Matter of common interest between clients
- § 5:120 — —Joint representation agreements
- § 5:121 — —Disclosure of client's identity
- § 5:122 Patient and health care provider privilege
- § 5:123 —Definitions
- § 5:124 — —Patient
- § 5:125 — —Health condition
- § 5:126 — —Health care provider
- § 5:127 — —Physician
- § 5:128 — —Psychotherapist
- § 5:129 — —Representative of patient
- § 5:130 — —Representative of health care provider
- § 5:131 — —Confidential communication
- § 5:132 — — —Examples
- § 5:133 —Release of privileged information
- § 5:134 —Who may assert privilege
- § 5:135 —Waiver
- § 5:136 — —Examples
- § 5:137 —Exceptions
- § 5:138 Patient and healthcare provider privilege—
Exceptions—Examples
- § 5:139 Patient and health care provider privilege—Medical malpractice
- § 5:140 —Authorized release of medical records
- § 5:141 —Preemption
- § 5:142 Reporter's privilege
- § 5:143 —Definitions
- § 5:144 — —Reporter
- § 5:145 — —News media
- § 5:146 —Extent of privilege
- § 5:147 Spousal privilege

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|         |                                                                                                               |
|---------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 5:148 | —Confidential communications privilege                                                                        |
| § 5:149 | —Spousal witness privilege                                                                                    |
| § 5:150 | Clergy privilege                                                                                              |
| § 5:151 | —Definitions                                                                                                  |
| § 5:152 | — —Clergyman                                                                                                  |
| § 5:153 | — —Confidential communication                                                                                 |
| § 5:154 | —General rule of privilege                                                                                    |
| § 5:155 | —Who may claim privilege                                                                                      |
| § 5:156 | —Privileged communications between persons and religious authorities relating to matrimonial rights or status |
| § 5:157 | — —Definitions                                                                                                |
| § 5:158 | — — —Marital status or rights                                                                                 |
| § 5:159 | — — —Person                                                                                                   |
| § 5:160 | — — —Privileged communications                                                                                |
| § 5:161 | — — —Recognized religious authority                                                                           |
| § 5:162 | Political vote                                                                                                |
| § 5:163 | Trade secrets                                                                                                 |
| § 5:164 | Records of Bureau of Criminal Identification and Information                                                  |
| § 5:165 | Federal immunity statute                                                                                      |

IV. EVIDENTIARY OBJECTIONS AND PROFFERS

|         |                        |
|---------|------------------------|
| § 5:166 | Purposes of objections |
| § 5:167 | Proffer of evidence    |

V. FORMS

|         |                                                                                                                                                             |
|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 5:168 | Motion to quash subpoena                                                                                                                                    |
| § 5:169 | Motion in limine—Exclude evidence of subsequent accidents                                                                                                   |
| § 5:170 | —Exclude evidence of other claims or lawsuits against defendant                                                                                             |
| § 5:171 | —Exclude evidence plaintiffs' receipt of benefits from collateral source, portion of cause of action is subrogation claim, recovery not subject to taxation |
| § 5:172 | —Preclude use of social media photographs, comments                                                                                                         |
| § 5:173 | —Preclude expert opinion                                                                                                                                    |
| § 5:174 | Motion to strike—Privileged material—Federal immunity statute                                                                                               |
| § 5:175 | — —Violation of patient-physician privilege                                                                                                                 |
| § 5:176 | — —Joint representation agreement—Sample form                                                                                                               |

CHAPTER 6. WITNESSES AND TESTIMONY

I. GENERAL RULES FOR TAKING TESTIMONY

- § 6:1 Form of taking testimony
- § 6:2 —The parties present testimony
- § 6:3 —Control by court
- § 6:4 — —Contempt power of court
- § 6:5 —Verbatim record
- § 6:6 Use of interpreters
- § 6:7 —Examples
- § 6:8 Calling and interrogation of witness by judge
- § 6:9 —Questions by court
- § 6:10 — —Examples
- § 6:11 —Objections to judge calling or questioning witness
- § 6:12 —Consent of all parties required in jury trial
- § 6:13 Exclusion of witnesses
- § 6:14 —Persons who may not be excluded from the courtroom
- § 6:15 —Sanctions for violations of sequestration order

II. PREREQUISITES TO TESTIFYING

- § 6:16 Competency, generally
- § 6:17 —Competency of specific persons as witnesses
- § 6:18 — —Disqualification of judge as witness
- § 6:19 — —Lawyer as witness
- § 6:20 — — —Limitations on lawyer being both advocate and witness
- § 6:21 — — —Exceptions to general rule of disqualification
- § 6:22 — — —Effect of other lawyer in firm as witness
- § 6:23 — —Restriction on juror as witness
- § 6:24 — — —Juror cannot impeach verdict
- § 6:25 — —Person having transaction with decedent; Dead Man's Statute
- § 6:26 — — —Parol admissible where debt acknowledged
- § 6:27 — — —Need for corroborating evidence
- § 6:28 — — —Parol evidence objection cannot be waived
- § 6:29 — — —Competence of child witnesses
- § 6:30 —Procedure to challenge competency
- § 6:31 — —Preliminary hearing on ability to testify
- § 6:32 Witness must possess personal knowledge
- § 6:33 —Proof from witness
- § 6:34 —Other proof

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6:35 —Illustrations
- § 6:36 Necessity of oath or affirmation
- § 6:37 —Oath must be taken before testimony
- § 6:38 —Form of oath
- § 6:39 —Effect of religious belief

III. DIRECT EXAMINATION

- § 6:40 Preparing witness to testify
- § 6:41 Purpose and objectives of direct examination
- § 6:42 Use of leading questions
- § 6:43 —Leading question defined
- § 6:44 —Adverse party
- § 6:45 —Hostile witness
- § 6:46 —Unresponsive witness
- § 6:47 —Expert witnesses
- § 6:48 —Young children
- § 6:49 —Use leading questions to develop testimony
- § 6:50 Procedure for direct examination; calling witnesses
- § 6:51 —Oath or affirmation
- § 6:52 —Preliminary questions
- § 6:53 — —Name, address, age
- § 6:54 — —Relevancy of testimony
- § 6:55 — —Competency of witness
- § 6:56 Testimony on subject matter
- § 6:57 —Simple questions
- § 6:58 —Witness' response
- § 6:59 —Ensure question answered
- § 6:60 Use of exhibits
- § 6:61 —Permission to approach witness
- § 6:62 —Distribute copies of exhibit
- § 6:63 —Foundation for admission of exhibit
- § 6:64 —Offer exhibit into evidence
- § 6:65 Dealing with objections
- § 6:66 —Avoid improper reaction
- § 6:67 —Anticipate objections before trial
- § 6:68 —Request bench conference
- § 6:69 —Request basis for objection
- § 6:70 —Prepare witness for objections
- § 6:71 Dealing with the forgetful or hostile witness
- § 6:72 —Refreshing witness recollection
- § 6:73 — —Production of writing used before testifying
- § 6:74 — —Use of writing by adverse party
- § 6:75 — —Inspection
- § 6:76 — —Cross-examination

- § 6:77 — —Failure to produce memory refreshing document
- § 6:78 — —Improper use of document, recording or object
- § 6:79 — —Examples
- § 6:80 — —Past recollection recorded
- § 6:81 — —Distinguished from refreshing recollection
- § 6:82 — —Exception to hearsay rule
- § 6:83 — —Requirements for use; witness recollection insufficient to testify
- § 6:84 — —Made at a time when fact occurred
- § 6:85 — —Made by or at direction of witness
- § 6:86 — —Concerns matter of which witness has knowledge
- § 6:87 — —Admission of contents of writing; portion not remembered read into evidence
- § 6:88 — —Relevance remains a requirement for introduction into evidence
- § 6:89 — —Disclosure of statements to opposing counsel
- § 6:90 — —Procedure; witness identifies writing
- § 6:91 — —Move to admit
- § 6:92 — —Read writing

IV. TESTIMONY THROUGH DEPOSITIONS AND OTHER PRETRIAL MATERIALS

- § 6:93 Use of depositions at trial
- § 6:94 — —Evidence must be otherwise admissible
- § 6:95 — —Deponent as witness
- § 6:96 — —Examples
- § 6:97 — —Adverse party
- § 6:98 — —Examples
- § 6:99 — —Unavailability of witness
- § 6:100 — —Caveat concerning unavailability
- § 6:101 — —Examples where depositions inadmissible
- § 6:102 — —Other circumstances when deposition testimony may be used
- § 6:103 — —Use of expert deposition
- § 6:104 — —Notice to use expert deposition
- § 6:105 — —Objection to expert deposition
- § 6:106 — —Court authority to admit expert deposition
- § 6:107 — —Procedure for reading deposition into record
- § 6:108 — —Editing the deposition for trial
- § 6:109 — —Procedure for using video tape deposition
- § 6:110 Tactical considerations in using depositions
- § 6:111 — —Whose witness is the deponent?
- § 6:112 — —Rebutting deposition testimony
- § 6:113 Answers to interrogatories

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6:114 Admissions
- § 6:115 —Judicial admissions
- § 6:116 —Other admissions
- § 6:117 —Judicial admissions are conclusive
- § 6:118 —Judicial admissions may be withdrawn
- § 6:119 —Admissions may be used only in pending action
- § 6:120 —Judicial confessions
- § 6:121 — —Examples
- § 6:122 — — —Statements that are not judicial confessions
- § 6:123 — — —Revocations

V. CROSS-EXAMINATION

- § 6:124 Generally
- § 6:125 Right to cross-examine
- § 6:126 —Cross-examination cannot be denied
- § 6:127 — —The right to cross-examine extends to re-opened cases
- § 6:128 To cross or not to cross
- § 6:129 —Not occasion for discovery
- § 6:130 — —Outline the cross-examination
- § 6:131 — —Practice the cross-examination
- § 6:132 — —Showtime—A cross without a hitch
- § 6:133 Purpose and objectives of cross-examination
- § 6:134 —Scope of impeachment
- § 6:135 — —Probative value versus prejudicial effect
- § 6:136 — —Extrinsic evidence may be excluded
- § 6:137 — —Religious beliefs
- § 6:138 Scope of cross-examination
- § 6:139 —Limited cross-examination—The hostile or adverse witness
- § 6:140 —Credibility of witness
- § 6:141 Conducting the cross-examination
- § 6:142 —Assert control over witness
- § 6:143 —Project confidence
- § 6:144 Formulating the question: Use leading questions
- § 6:145 —Use short, clear, simple questions
- § 6:146 — —Illustrative question
- § 6:147 —Know the answer to your question in advance
- § 6:148 —Use of exhibits
- § 6:149 Witness' answer to question
- § 6:150 —Sanction non-responsive answers
- § 6:151 —Request judge to direct witness to answer question
- § 6:152 Elicit favorable testimony
- § 6:153 —Repeat favorable parts of direct testimony

- § 6:154 —Corroborate client’s case
- § 6:155 —Exhibits
- § 6:156 —Admissions
- § 6:157 Discredit unfavorable testimony
- § 6:158 —Methods of discrediting
- § 6:159 — —Attack perception of matter
- § 6:160 — — —Ability to observe
- § 6:161 — — —Perception not complete
- § 6:162 — —Attack the witness’ conduct as inconsistent with testimony
- § 6:163 — —Attack memory
- § 6:164 — — —Length of time since event
- § 6:165 — — —Inability to recall other details

VI. REDIRECT AND RECROSS-EXAMINATION

- § 6:166 When permitted
- § 6:167 —Purposes; rehabilitation
- § 6:168 —Re-impeach the witness
- § 6:169 —Explore issues not fully explained
- § 6:170 —Explore issues “opened” by opponent
- § 6:171 Scope of examination
- § 6:172 —Redirect
- § 6:173 —Recross

VII. IMPEACHING AND REHABILITATING A WITNESS

- § 6:174 Generally
- § 6:175 Who may impeach witness
- § 6:176 —Party calling witness may attack credibility
- § 6:177 Time for raising credibility issues
- § 6:178 —General inquiry into background and ability to perceive
- § 6:179 Intrinsic or extrinsic evidence of credibility
- § 6:180 —Use of extrinsic evidence of credibility
- § 6:181 —Extrinsic evidence of prior inconsistent statements and contradictions
- § 6:182 — —Risks outweigh probative value
- § 6:183 —Foundation for extrinsic evidence testimony
- § 6:184 — —Laying the impeachment foundation
- § 6:185 — — —Make the witness admit or deny the event
- § 6:186 Use of prior inconsistent statement—Party and witness distinguished
- § 6:187 —Exception to hearsay rule
- § 6:188 —Examining witness concerning prior statement

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|         |                                                                      |
|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 6:189 | —Disclosure of statement                                             |
| § 6:190 | —Extrinsic evidence                                                  |
| § 6:191 | —Opportunity to explain or deny statement                            |
| § 6:192 | —Opportunity for opposing counsel to interrogate on statement        |
| § 6:193 | Bias, interest, or motive                                            |
| § 6:194 | Attacking credibility by character evidence; reputation for veracity |
| § 6:195 | —Foundation for testimony about reputation                           |
| § 6:196 | —Limitations                                                         |
| § 6:197 | — —Character traits cannot be proven by specific conduct             |
| § 6:198 | — —Cross-examination of character witness                            |
| § 6:199 | —Evidence of conviction of crime                                     |
| § 6:200 | — —Arrest distinguished                                              |
| § 6:201 | —Details not admissible                                              |
| § 6:202 | —Types of crimes which are admissible                                |
| § 6:203 | — —Crimes involving dishonesty                                       |
| § 6:204 | — —Juvenile offenses                                                 |
| § 6:205 | —Effect of pardon                                                    |
| § 6:206 | —Effect of pending appeal                                            |
| § 6:207 | —Method of proving conviction                                        |
| § 6:208 | —Production of record                                                |
| § 6:209 | — —Other competent evidence of conviction                            |
| § 6:210 | —Exclusion of conviction                                             |
| § 6:211 | — —Examples                                                          |
| § 6:212 | — —Other causes for exclusion of conviction evidence                 |
| § 6:213 | —Religious beliefs or opinions                                       |
| § 6:214 | Rehabilitating credibility with prior consistent statements          |
| § 6:215 | —Examples                                                            |
| § 6:216 | —Truthful character                                                  |
| § 6:217 | — —Opinion                                                           |
| § 6:218 | — —Reputation                                                        |
| § 6:219 | — —Specific instances of conduct                                     |
| § 6:220 | In general                                                           |

VIII. CHECKLISTS

|         |                                       |
|---------|---------------------------------------|
| § 6:221 | Conducting the direct examination     |
| § 6:222 | Refreshing witness' recollection      |
| § 6:223 | Past recollection recorded            |
| § 6:224 | Methods for impeaching witnesses      |
| § 6:225 | Requirements for impeaching witnesses |
| § 6:226 | Redirect examination                  |

IX. FORMS

- § 6:227 Motion to permit introduction of witness deposition at trial
- § 6:228 —Order
- § 6:229 Motion to strike plaintiffs' witnesses and exhibits
- § 6:230 Motion to strike or exclude witness and motion in limine to restrict testimony and evidence
- § 6:231 Plaintiffs' memorandum in support of motion in limine to exclude testimony and argument regarding alleged fraud and extramarital affairs
- § 6:232 —Order
- § 6:233 Motion in limine and motion to strike witnesses and portions of answer
- § 6:234 —Order
- § 6:235 Request for interpreter and order

CHAPTER 7. OPINION AND EXPERT TESTIMONY

I. OPINION TESTIMONY BY LAY WITNESSES

- § 7:1 Generally
- § 7:2 Prerequisites for presenting
- § 7:3 —Must be rationally based on perception of the witness
- § 7:4 — —Examples where evidence admissible
- § 7:5 — —Examples where evidence inadmissible
- § 7:6 —Must assist the trier of fact in understanding the witness' testimony or determination of a fact at issue
- § 7:7 — —Automobile collision repair
- § 7:8 Procedure for presenting lay opinion testimony; laying a foundation
- § 7:9 —Lay opinion as to specific issues
- § 7:10 — —Speed of a vehicle
- § 7:11 —Location of a vehicle
- § 7:12 —Lay opinion as to specific issues—Handwriting
- § 7:13 — —Value of property and damages
- § 7:14 — —Fair market value of property
- § 7:15 — —Safety issues
- § 7:16 — — —Examples
- § 7:17 — — —Damages
- § 7:18 — —Credibility
- § 7:19 — —Physical appearance or mental health
- § 7:20 — —Intoxication

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:21 Exclusion of lay opinion testimony
- § 7:22 —Grounds for exclusion of lay opinion testimony
- § 7:23 — —Irrelevant
- § 7:24 Testimony that does not constitute “opinion”

II. EXPERT OPINION TESTIMONY

- § 7:25 Construction with federal law
- § 7:26 Prerequisites for admission of expert opinion testimony
- § 7:27 Court should scrutinize expert opinion testimony before admitting into evidence; the danger of “junk science”
- § 7:28 —Potential for abuse of expert opinion testimony
- § 7:29 —Courts as “gatekeepers” for admission of expert opinions
- § 7:30 —The status of Daubert in Louisiana
- § 7:31 Court should scrutinize expert opinion testimony before admitting into evidence; the danger of “junk science”—Cases interpreting Daubert
- § 7:32 Determination of whether witness’ testimony is the proper subject of testimony by an expert witness under La Code Evid Ann art 702
- § 7:33 Determination of whether witness’ testimony is the proper subject of testimony by an expert witness under La Code Evid Ann art 702—Sufficient facts or data
- § 7:34 Determination of whether witness’ testimony is the proper subject of testimony by an expert witness under La Code Evid Ann art 702—“Scientific knowledge”
- § 7:35 —“Technical knowledge”
- § 7:36 —“Other specialized knowledge”
- § 7:37 Determination of whether the expert testimony assists the trier of fact
- § 7:38 —Trial court determination of whether an expert opinion is necessary
- § 7:39 — —Expert opinion testimony on legal issues
- § 7:40 — —Expert opinion testimony on damages
- § 7:41 — —Expert opinion on the ultimate legal issue
- § 7:42 — —Opinion of expert with insufficient knowledge of facts of a case
- § 7:43 Prerequisites for admission of expert testimony under Daubert, generally
- § 7:44 —Whether an expert opinion involves “scientific evidence” under La Code Evid Ann art 702 and Daubert

- § 7:45 —Whether an expert’s opinion is reliable
- § 7:46 — —Examples where expert’s opinion not reliable
- § 7:47 — —Examples where opinion testimony is reliable
- § 7:48 —Whether expert opinion testimony is “relevant”
under Daubert
- § 7:49 — —Examples
- § 7:50 Exclusion of expert opinions
- § 7:51 —Special procedural issues involving expert
testimony
- § 7:52 — —Opposing summary judgment; affidavit of expert
- § 7:53 — — —Affidavits made in bad faith
- § 7:54 —Motion in limine
- § 7:55 Expert opinions as to specific issues
- § 7:56 —Business matters
- § 7:57 —Value of services
- § 7:58 —Value of real estate
- § 7:59 — —Examples
- § 7:60 —Accident investigation
- § 7:61 —Accident reconstruction
- § 7:62 — —Examples
- § 7:63 —Medical matters
- § 7:64 Expert opinions to specific issues—Medical matters—
Guidelines
- § 7:65 Expert opinions as to specific issues—Medical matters—Locality rule
- § 7:66 — —Qualifications
- § 7:67 — —Medical review panels
- § 7:68 — —Examples
- § 7:69 — —When expert testimony not needed
- § 7:70 —Child custody
- § 7:71 —Product liability
- § 7:72 — —Examples
- § 7:73 —Construction defects, repairs, and maintenance
- § 7:74 —Environmental issues
- § 7:75 —Earning capacity
- § 7:76 —Testamentary capacity
- § 7:77 Opinion on ultimate issue
- § 7:78 Foundation testimony for expert witnesses; voir dire examination
- § 7:79 —Qualification of an expert by experience or specialized knowledge and skill
- § 7:80 —Qualification of an expert by training or education
- § 7:81 —Subjects of voir dire examination
- § 7:82 —Qualification of medical expert
- § 7:83 — —Examples

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|         |                                                                                      |
|---------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 7:84  | The basis of opinion testimony                                                       |
| § 7:85  | —Types of information which an expert may use in reaching an opinion                 |
| § 7:86  | — —Examples of admissible evidence                                                   |
| § 7:87  | — —Examples of inadmissible evidence                                                 |
| § 7:88  | —The role of the court under La Code Evid Ann art 703                                |
| § 7:89  | —Foundation for expert's use of inadmissible evidence under La Code Evid Ann art 703 |
| § 7:90  | — —Examples of inadmissible evidence                                                 |
| § 7:91  | — — —Expert must establish that others in field rely on same facts or data           |
| § 7:92  | — — —Underlying facts and data viewed as "reliable" among the expert's peers         |
| § 7:93  | — — —Expert reasonably relied on the underlying facts and data in forming opinion    |
| § 7:94  | —Facts perceived by an expert                                                        |
| § 7:95  | —Facts made known to an expert before trial                                          |
| § 7:96  | —Experiments and tests of expert                                                     |
| § 7:97  | —Opinions based upon opinions of other experts                                       |
| § 7:98  | —Exclusion of inadmissible evidence under La Code Evid Ann art 703                   |
| § 7:99  | —Disclosure of the underlying facts and data during your expert's direct examination |
| § 7:100 | Hypothetical questions                                                               |
| § 7:101 | Conducting the direct examination of an expert witness                               |
| § 7:102 | —Foundation for expert's testimony                                                   |
| § 7:103 | —Elicit the expert's opinion                                                         |
| § 7:104 | — —Timing of presenting expert's opinion                                             |
| § 7:105 | — —Procedure for eliciting expert's opinion during direct examination                |
| § 7:106 | — — —Your expert's opinion                                                           |
| § 7:107 | — — —How your expert arrived at his or her opinion                                   |
| § 7:108 | — — —Why your expert's opinion should be accepted                                    |
| § 7:109 | — — —What the trier of fact should conclude based on your expert's opinion           |
| § 7:110 | —Experiments, demonstration or models                                                |
| § 7:111 | Conducting the cross-examination of an expert witness                                |
| § 7:112 | —General objectives                                                                  |
| § 7:113 | — —Follow the basic rules of cross-examination                                       |
| § 7:114 | — —Demonstrate the lack of qualifications and credibility of an adverse expert       |
| § 7:115 | — —Try to prove a few simple "sure winners"                                          |

- § 7:116 — —Do not argue with the adverse expert
- § 7:117 — —Scope of cross-examination
- § 7:118 — —Attack the foundation of the adverse expert's opinion
- § 7:119 — —Attack the opposing expert's opinion
- § 7:120 — —Opinion changes where there are different facts
- § 7:121 — —Prior inconsistent statements
- § 7:122 — —Use of learned treatise in cross-examination of an adverse expert
- § 7:123 — —The financial interest of an adverse expert
- § 7:124 Court-appointed experts

III. CHECKLISTS

- § 7:125 Requirements and procedure for admission of lay opinion testimony
- § 7:126 Identification and education of expert witness
- § 7:127 Associations and affiliations of expert
- § 7:128 Expert's specialty or subspecialty
- § 7:129 Products liability expert—Experience with comparable products
- § 7:130 —Preparation for testimony

IV. FORMS

- § 7:131 Motion in limine based on LCE article 704
- § 7:132 Motion in limine citing Evidence Rule 702
- § 7:133 Memorandums in support of and opposing motion in limine to exclude inflammatory testimony by expert witness
- § 7:134 Motion substitute expert witness based upon a medical necessity (personal injury case)

CHAPTER 8. HEARSAY

I. HEARSAY RULE AND DEFINITION OF HEARSAY

- § 8:1 The hearsay rule
- § 8:2 Hearsay is inadmissible
- § 8:3 —Hearsay within hearsay
- § 8:4 Definition of hearsay
- § 8:5 —Statement
- § 8:6 — —Oral or written assertion
- § 8:7 — —Nonverbal conduct as assertion
- § 8:8 —Witness not person who made statement
- § 8:9 —Offered to prove truth of matter asserted

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:10 — —Examples
- § 8:11 — —Not when offered for other purposes
- § 8:12 — —Examples
- § 8:13 — —Writings

II. STATEMENTS THAT ARE NOT HEARSAY

- § 8:14 General distinction between statements that are not hearsay and hearsay exceptions
- § 8:15 Overview
- § 8:16 — —Prior statements by witness
- § 8:17 — —Inconsistent former testimony
- § 8:18 — — —Application limited to criminal actions
- § 8:19 — —Consistent statements offered for rebuttal
- § 8:20 — —Prior identification
- § 8:21 — —Initial complaint of sexual assault
- § 8:22 — —Victim of sexually-oriented criminal offense to healthcare provider
- § 8:23 — —Admission used against party
- § 8:24 — —Statement adopted by party
- § 8:25 — —Statement by party's agent or employee
- § 8:26 — —Illustrations
- § 8:27 — —Statement by coconspirator
- § 8:28 — —Statement by someone primarily liable
- § 8:29 — —Examples
- § 8:30 — —Statement by someone through which a party claims a right or title
- § 8:31 — —Statement by decedent in wrongful death action
- § 8:32 — —Statement by child in action to recover damages for child's benefit
- § 8:33 — —Statements that speak for themselves

III. EXCEPTIONS TO THE HEARSAY RULE

- § 8:34 Overview
- § 8:35 Exceptions not dependent on declarant's unavailability
- § 8:36 — —Present sense impression
- § 8:37 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:38 — —Spontaneous statement descriptive of event or condition
- § 8:39 — — —Examples that are not present sense impressions (803(1))
- § 8:40 — —Excited utterance
- § 8:41 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:42 — —Startling event or condition

- § 8:43 — —Time of statement
- § 8:44 — — —Implied requirement for spontaneity
- § 8:45 — —Examples
- § 8:46 —Then existing mental, emotional, or physical condition
- § 8:47 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:48 — —Conditions contemplated
- § 8:49 — —Not admissible to prove belief or memory
- § 8:50 — — —Wills exception
- § 8:51 — —Examples
- § 8:52 —Statements for purposes of medical treatment and medical diagnosis in connection with treatment
- § 8:53 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:54 — —Made for the purpose of treatment and diagnosis
- § 8:55 —Recorded recollection
- § 8:56 — —Foundation
- § 8:57 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:58 — —Exclusion from jury room
- § 8:59 —Records of regularly conducted business activity
- § 8:60 — —Nature and purpose
- § 8:61 — —Foundation; custodian must testify
- § 8:62 — — —Custodian of records
- § 8:63 — — —Other qualified persons
- § 8:64 — —Information supplied by a person with actual knowledge
- § 8:65 — —Record made at or near the time of observation
- § 8:66 — —Record made in the regular course of business
- § 8:67 — —Regular practice to make record
- § 8:68 — —Trustworthiness
- § 8:69 — —Examples of documents not falling within business records exception
- § 8:70 — —Examples of documents falling within business records exception
- § 8:71 —Absence of entry in records of regularly conducted business activity
- § 8:72 — —Purpose of evidence
- § 8:73 —Public records and reports
- § 8:74 — —Nature of exception
- § 8:75 — — —Examples
- § 8:76 — —Exclusions
- § 8:77 —Absence of public record or entry
- § 8:78 — —Nature of exception
- § 8:79 —Vital statistics
- § 8:80 — —Original certificates
- § 8:81 —Records of religious organizations

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|         |                                                                |
|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 8:82  | —Marriage, baptismal, and similar certificates                 |
| § 8:83  | —Family records                                                |
| § 8:84  | —Reputation evidence                                           |
| § 8:85  | —Judgments                                                     |
| § 8:86  | —Documents affecting an interest in property                   |
| § 8:87  | — —Statements in such documents                                |
| § 8:88  | —Ancient documents                                             |
| § 8:89  | — —Statutory definition                                        |
| § 8:90  | —Market reports, commercial publications                       |
| § 8:91  | —Learned treatises                                             |
| § 8:92  | — —Contrast with federal rule                                  |
| § 8:93  | —Reputation or judgments concerning boundaries                 |
| § 8:94  | —Reputation as to character                                    |
| § 8:95  | —Previous conviction                                           |
| § 8:96  | — —Nolo contendere plea excluded                               |
| § 8:97  | — —Criminal cases                                              |
| § 8:98  | —Testimony about own age                                       |
| § 8:99  | Certain exceptions require that the declarant not be available |
| § 8:100 | —Former testimony                                              |
| § 8:101 | —Statement under belief of impending death                     |
| § 8:102 | — —Examples                                                    |
| § 8:103 | —Statement against interest                                    |
| § 8:104 | —Statement of personal or family history                       |
| § 8:105 | — —Made before the controversy                                 |
| § 8:106 | — —Statement by relative                                       |
| § 8:107 | —Minor’s complaint of sexually assaultive behavior             |
| § 8:108 | —Forfeiture by wrongdoing                                      |
| § 8:109 | Other exceptions                                               |

CHAPTER 9. EXHIBITS

I. REAL AND DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE

|       |                                                              |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 9:1 | Generally; definition                                        |
| § 9:2 | The importance and use of demonstrative evidence             |
| § 9:3 | —When to consider demonstrative evidence                     |
| § 9:4 | —Use of demonstrative evidence                               |
| § 9:5 | —Consideration for use                                       |
| § 9:6 | —Cost of demonstrative evidence; less expensive alternatives |
| § 9:7 | — —Cameras, copy stands, and tripods                         |

II. PLANNING FOR USE OF DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE

|       |                                       |
|-------|---------------------------------------|
| § 9:8 | Consider physical layout of courtroom |
|-------|---------------------------------------|

- § 9:9 Consider local rules and customs
- § 9:10 Be organized
- § 9:11 —Options to consider
- § 9:12 — —A copy for each juror
- § 9:13 — —Commercial enlargements
- § 9:14 — —Electronic options
- § 9:15 — —Electronic cursor
- § 9:16 — —Electronic projection
- § 9:17 — —Photographic reproductions

III. GENERAL RULES GOVERNING ADMISSION OF DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE

- § 9:18 Procedure for admission of exhibit into evidence, generally; discretion of judge
- § 9:19 Marking of exhibits
- § 9:20 Stipulations of authenticity or admissibility
- § 9:21 Authenticity of the exhibit; standard applied by court
- § 9:22 —Introducing exhibit into evidence
- § 9:23 —Need to object
- § 9:24 Record of exhibits and retention of exhibits
- § 9:25 Examination of exhibits by jury
- § 9:26 Photographs, generally
- § 9:27 —Photographs of people and objects
- § 9:28 Video
- § 9:29 —Considerations for admissibility
- § 9:30 —Authentication
- § 9:31 —Situations where video admitted
- § 9:32 —Situations where video tapes not admitted
- § 9:33 —Execution of will
- § 9:34 —Day-in-life film
- § 9:35 —Surveillance films
- § 9:36 —Surgery
- § 9:37 —Injuries
- § 9:38 Demonstration of injuries
- § 9:39 —Where client is unable to attend trial
- § 9:40 Diagrams
- § 9:41 —Admissibility dependent on purpose of offer
- § 9:42 —Excluded where misleading
- § 9:43 —Examples
- § 9:44 Charts and summaries
- § 9:45 Demonstration and experiment
- § 9:46 —Considerations for admissions
- § 9:47 Models
- § 9:48 Computer-generated exhibits

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 9:49 —Examples where admitted
- § 9:50 Visit to the scene
- § 9:51 —Use of exhibits during opening statement and closing argument

IV. DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

- § 9:52 Admissibility, generally
- § 9:53 —Relevance
- § 9:54 —Hearsay
- § 9:55 Authentication of documents and other evidence
- § 9:56 —Testimony of subscribing witness not necessary
- § 9:57 —Where authenticity contested
- § 9:58 —Manner of authentication
- § 9:59 Self authentication
- § 9:60 —Code of Evidence
- § 9:61 — —Official records or documents
- § 9:62 —Other statutes addressing admissibility
- § 9:63 — —Copies
- § 9:64 — —Certified documents
- § 9:65 Traffic tickets
- § 9:66 Texts and emails
- § 9:67 Social media evidence

V. NECESSITY OF INTRODUCTION OF THE ORIGINAL

- § 9:68 Introduction
- § 9:69 —Writings, recordings, and photographs defined
- § 9:70 — —Original defined
- § 9:71 — —Duplicate defined
- § 9:72 —Admissibility of duplicate under Article 1002
- § 9:73 —Admissibility of duplicate under Article 1004
- § 9:74 —Electronic duplicates
- § 9:75 —Business records
- § 9:76 —Hospital charts and medical records
- § 9:77 — —Examples
- § 9:78 —Blood alcohol concentration test results
- § 9:79 —Admission of contents by a party
- § 9:80 —Summaries
- § 9:81 Best evidence rule and insurance policies

VI. CHECKLIST

- § 9:82 Requirements and procedure for admission of demonstrative evidence

§ 9:83 Using technology

VII. FORM

§ 9:84 Business records

§ 9:85 Sample expert examination:

CHAPTER 10. OTHER TYPES OF EVIDENCE

I. JUDICIAL NOTICE

- § 10:1 Overview; adjudicative facts
- § 10:2 Facts not in dispute and generally known
- § 10:3 —Common knowledge
- § 10:4 — —Examples
- § 10:5 — —Capable of determination using standard sources
- § 10:6 —Legal malpractice
- § 10:7 —Discretionary or mandatory notice
- § 10:8 —Personal knowledge prohibited
- § 10:9 —Requesting that court take judicial notice
- § 10:10 — —Out of hearing of jury
- § 10:11 —Opportunity to be heard
- § 10:12 — —Request of party
- § 10:13 —Jury instruction
- § 10:14 Judicial notice of legal matters
- § 10:15 —Situations when mandatory
- § 10:16 — —Request required
- § 10:17 — —Laws of the United States
- § 10:18 — —Laws of states and territories
- § 10:19 — —Local ordinances
- § 10:20 —No request required
- § 10:21 —Situations where not mandatory
- § 10:22 — —Need for request
- § 10:23 — — —Provide information to court
- § 10:24 — — —Court may inform itself
- § 10:25 — —Time for requesting
- § 10:26 — —Legal matters are questions for court
- § 10:27 — —Particular matters
- § 10:28 — — —Proclamations
- § 10:29 — — —Rules published in Louisiana Register
- § 10:30 — — —Ordinances
- § 10:31 — — —Published court rules
- § 10:32 — — —Rules of federal or state agencies
- § 10:33 — — —Foreign law

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:34 — — —International or maritime law
- § 10:35 —Proof of statutes, regulations, or decisions
- § 10:36 — —Federal records and documents
- § 10:37 — —States, territories, or foreign jurisdictions
- § 10:38 Judicial notice of government websites

II. VIEW BY JURY

- § 10:39 Availability
- § 10:40 Procedure
- § 10:41 —At court’s direction
- § 10:42 —No evidence presented during view
- § 10:43 —Trial to proceed though no view had
- § 10:44 Examples—Denial of request
- § 10:45 Expenses

III. STIPULATIONS

- § 10:46 When to use
- § 10:47 —Effect of stipulation on law and court
- § 10:48 —Stipulations as to evidentiary matters
- § 10:49 — —Illustrations
- § 10:50 Time when made
- § 10:51 Effect
- § 10:52 —Examples
- § 10:53 Method of presenting

IV. FORMS

- § 10:54 Motion and order for taking judicial notice
- § 10:55 Stipulation concerning maximum value of claim

CHAPTER 11. MOTIONS DURING TRIAL

I. IN GENERAL

- § 11:1 Motions during trial, generally
- § 11:2 —Procedure considerations
- § 11:3 —Necessity for writing
- § 11:4 — —Oral if made in open court
- § 11:5 —Content
- § 11:6 — —Relief desired

II. MOTIONS DIRECTED TO OR TESTING SUFFICIENCY OF EVIDENCE

- § 11:7 Generally

LOUISIANA CIVIL TRIAL PROCEDURE

- § 11:8 Motions to strike evidence
- § 11:9 —Time for motion
- § 11:10 —Form of motion
- § 11:11 Motion for dismissal
- § 11:12 —Plaintiff fails to appear
- § 11:13 — —Dismissal with or without prejudice
- § 11:14 —Prior to the presentation of evidence
- § 11:15 — —Ruling on motion prior to live testimony—
Summary judgment
- § 11:16 — —Requirements for motion
- § 11:17 — — —Facts undisputed
- § 11:18 — — —Law free from doubt
- § 11:19 — —Evidence
- § 11:20 — —Requirements for motion—No cause or right of action
- § 11:21 —After presentation of plaintiff's evidence; involuntary dismissal—Bench trial
- § 11:22 — —Non-jury trial
- § 11:23 — —Standard for granting
- § 11:24 — —Effect of multiple parties
- § 11:25 — —Right to present defense evidence not waived
- § 11:26 — —Requirements for motion
- § 11:27 — —Who may move
- § 11:28 — —Cross-claims, counter-claims, third-party claims
- § 11:29 — — —Sua sponte dismissal
- § 11:30 — —Time when made
- § 11:31 — —When trial judge must rule
- § 11:32 — —Granting of motion
- § 11:33 — — —No inference
- § 11:34 — — —Effect of uncontroverted evidence
- § 11:35 — — —Effect
- § 11:36 — — —Examples
- § 11:37 — —Denial of motion
- § 11:38 — — —Effect
- § 11:39 — — —Examples
- § 11:40 — —Appellate review
- § 11:41 Motion for directed verdict
- § 11:42 —In jury cases
- § 11:43 —Grounds
- § 11:44 — —Must be stated
- § 11:45 —Evaluations of credibility
- § 11:46 —Timing of motion
- § 11:47 — —What constitutes close of evidence
- § 11:48 — —Right to present defense evidence not waived

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 11:49 —Not waiver of jury trial
- § 11:50 —Does not need jury's assent
- § 11:51 —Must be specifically pled
- § 11:52 —Examples of motions properly granted
- § 11:53 — —Examples of motions not properly granted
- § 11:54 —Examples of motion properly denied
- § 11:55 —Appellate review

III. OTHER MOTIONS

- § 11:56 Motion to amend pleadings to conform with evidence
- § 11:57 —Issues tried by consent
- § 11:58 —Issues not objected to
- § 11:59 — —Evidence admissible for other purpose
- § 11:60 —Liberal amendment policy
- § 11:61 — —When objection made that evidence is not within issues pleaded
- § 11:62 —Formal motion to amend pleadings
- § 11:63 — —Any party
- § 11:64 — —Made any time
- § 11:65 — — —Motion after judgment
- § 11:66 —Effect of failure to make motion
- § 11:67 Mistrial
- § 11:68 —Basis for declaring
- § 11:69 — —Guidelines
- § 11:70 — — —Discharge of juror or jury
- § 11:71 — — —Conduct of trial
- § 11:72 — — —Deadlocked jury
- § 11:73 — — —Exposure to inadmissible evidence
- § 11:74 — — —Misconduct by judge, jury or parties
- § 11:75 — — —Improper questioning or statements by counsel
- § 11:76 — — —Ex parte communications
- § 11:77 — — —Misconduct curable by instruction or admonition
- § 11:78 —Procedure for requesting
- § 11:79 — —Guidelines for hearing and deciding motion
- § 11:80 —Policy considerations
- § 11:81 —Effect

IV. FORMS

- § 11:82 Motion—Directed verdict
- § 11:83 Motion and order for voluntary dismissal
- § 11:84 Motion for partial dismissal
- § 11:85 Motion for dismissal with prejudice

CHAPTER 12. CLOSING ARGUMENT

I. IN GENERAL

- § 12:1 Overview; purpose
- § 12:2 —Objectives
- § 12:3 — —Culmination of trial
- § 12:4 — —Summarize the evidence
- § 12:5 — — —Strengths of client's case
- § 12:6 — — —Rebut opponent's case
- § 12:7 — — —Weaknesses of opponent's case
- § 12:8 — —Argue and influence case disposition

II. PSYCHOLOGY OF JUROR DECISION MAKING

- § 12:9 How juries make decisions
- § 12:10 —Decision making when uncertain
- § 12:11 —Discovering rules for uncertain situations
- § 12:12 — —Preexisting prototypes
- § 12:13 — —Heuristics
- § 12:14 — — —The availability heuristic
- § 12:15 — — —The representativeness heuristic
- § 12:16 —The severity effect, the fundamental attribution error, and the simulation heuristic
- § 12:17 — —Severity effect
- § 12:18 — —Fundamental attribution error
- § 12:19 — —Simulation heuristic
- § 12:20 Using the psychology of how jurors decide cases
- § 12:21 —Using narratives and prototypical stories
- § 12:22 —The severity effect
- § 12:23 —Using the fundamental attribution error
- § 12:24 —The simulation heuristic
- § 12:25 —Structuring the argument in lay terms; levels of argument
- § 12:26 — —Levels of argument
- § 12:27 — — —Fairness level
- § 12:28 — — —Factual level
- § 12:29 — — —Comfort zone level
- § 12:30 — —The facts and the law

III. PREPARATION

- § 12:31 In general
- § 12:32 —Review opening statements
- § 12:33 — —Party admissions
- § 12:34 — —Promises kept

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 12:35 — —Promises broken
- § 12:36 —Review pleadings
- § 12:37 —Review evidence
- § 12:38 —Review jury instructions
- § 12:39 —Remain flexible
- § 12:40 The draft
- § 12:41 —Practice of closing argument
- § 12:42 —The goal of preparation: Credibility with the jury
- § 12:43 —Know the jury; use the knowledge
- § 12:44 — —Identifying jury leaders
- § 12:45 — —Rapport with the jury

IV. PRESENTATION

- § 12:46 Sequence for presenting closing argument
- § 12:47 Delivering the closing argument
- § 12:48 —Position for delivery
- § 12:49 —Movement during delivery
- § 12:50 —Eye contact
- § 12:51 Presentation style
- § 12:52 —Principles of effective closing argument
- § 12:53 — —Building and maintaining credibility
- § 12:54 — —Identify and integrate a case theme
- § 12:55 — —Structure the argument to maximize persuasiveness
- § 12:56 — —Engage in a horizontal dialogue with the jury
- § 12:57 — —Employ the tools of argument
- § 12:58 — —Use demonstrative aids and exhibits
- § 12:59 — —Recognize the limits of your audience
- § 12:60 — —Adopt a persuasive style
- § 12:61 — —Display passion and conviction
- § 12:62 — —Take the rebuttal seriously
- § 12:63 —Visual aids
- § 12:64 —Mode and technique of speech, demeanor
- § 12:65 —Sincerity and candor
- § 12:66 Contents of the closing argument
- § 12:67 —Generally; latitude
- § 12:68 — —Statements regarding facts
- § 12:69 — —Counsel's view of evidence
- § 12:70 — —Counsel's conclusions from evidence
- § 12:71 — —Burden of proof
- § 12:72 — —Jury's duties and obligations
- § 12:73 Organization of closing
- § 12:74 —Around jury instructions/legal issues
- § 12:75 —Around structure of trial/summary of evidence

- § 12:76 —Around the most crucial or most controverted evidence
- § 12:77 Conclusion

V. THE REPLY AND OBJECTIONS

- § 12:78 Generally
- § 12:79 The rebuttal
- § 12:80 Objections

VI. THE LAW GOVERNING CLOSING ARGUMENT

- § 12:81 In general
- § 12:82 Courts grant wide latitude to closing argument
- § 12:83 —Appeals to prejudice
- § 12:84 —Appeals to emotion
- § 12:85 —Examples
- § 12:86 — —Improper remarks
- § 12:87 — —Proper remarks
- § 12:88 Closing argument not a substitute for evidence

VII. CONCLUSION

- § 12:89 A note of caution

VIII. CHECKLISTS

- § 12:90 Contents of the closing argument
- § 12:91 Grounds for objecting during closing argument
- § 12:92 Additional resources

CHAPTER 13. FINAL STAGES OF TRIAL AND ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

I. JURY TRIAL, GENERALLY

- § 13:1 Province of judge and jury
- § 13:2 —Comment by judge
- § 13:3 — —Effect on jury verdict
- § 13:4 — —Objection to relevance
- § 13:5 — —Charging jury
- § 13:6 Right to trial by jury
- § 13:7 —Statutes limiting general right to jury trial
- § 13:8 Directed verdicts
- § 13:9 —Analyzing weight and character of evidence
- § 13:10 —Credibility of witnesses

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:11 —Involuntary dismissals
- § 13:12 — —Examples

II. JURY INSTRUCTIONS

- § 13:13 Definition
- § 13:14 Purpose of jury instructions
- § 13:15 —When given
- § 13:16 — —Standard for reviewing instructions
- § 13:17 — — —Examples
- § 13:18 General versus specific jury instructions
- § 13:19 Limiting number of instructions
- § 13:20 The charge conference
- § 13:21 Objection to instructions
- § 13:22 Court's duty to inform parties
- § 13:23 —Special instructions
- § 13:24 Burden of proof
- § 13:25 —Examples—Personal injury cases
- § 13:26 Evidence—Spoliation
- § 13:27 —Adverse presumption
- § 13:28 Negligence—Reasonableness
- § 13:29 Negligence—Duty
- § 13:30 Negligence—Reasonableness—Causation
- § 13:31 —Apparent authority
- § 13:32 —Independent contractor or third party fault
- § 13:33 — —Imputing negligence
- § 13:34 — —Sudden emergency doctrine
- § 13:35 —Comparative fault
- § 13:36 Negligence—Standard of care
- § 13:37 —Loss of chance of survival
- § 13:38 —Alcohol-related vehicular accidents
- § 13:39 Force-of-impact instruction
- § 13:40 Res ipsa loquitur
- § 13:41 —Examples
- § 13:42 Sophisticated user
- § 13:43 Slip and fall
- § 13:44 Intentional infliction of emotions distress instructions
- § 13:45 Wrongful death
- § 13:46 Medical malpractice cases
- § 13:47 —Examples
- § 13:48 Breach of contract
- § 13:49 Damages
- § 13:50 —Presumption that disability resulted from the accident
- § 13:51 —Settlements

III. VERDICT FORMS

- § 13:52 Form of verdict: Special or general
- § 13:53 —General verdict form submitted with interrogatories
- § 13:54 — —Purpose of interrogatories
- § 13:55 —General verdict inconsistent with answers to interrogatories
- § 13:56 Special verdict
- § 13:57 —Issues omitted from the special verdict form
- § 13:58 — —Special verdicts in personal injury cases
- § 13:59 —Objections to verdict forms/interrogatories
- § 13:60 —Importance of substantive laws
- § 13:61 —Examples—Insufficient forms
- § 13:62 — — —Burden of proof
- § 13:63 —Examples—Sufficient forms/interrogatories
- § 13:64 Special Verdict—Examples where not required
- § 13:65 Sample special interrogatories—Negligence—Trip or slip and fall
- § 13:66 — —Vehicular accident
- § 13:67 —Medical malpractice—In connection with treatment for cancer
- § 13:68 — —Neonatology care

IV. JURY TRIALS

- § 13:69 Number of jurors; alternate jurors
- § 13:70 —Discharge of alternate jurors
- § 13:71 — —Effect of alternate juror's presence during deliberations
- § 13:72 Selection of foreperson
- § 13:73 Deliberations—In general
- § 13:74 Evidence taken into deliberation room
- § 13:75 —Discretion of judge
- § 13:76 —Examples
- § 13:77 —Recorded recollections excepted
- § 13:78 Jury requests to review evidence
- § 13:79 —Examples
- § 13:80 Additional instructions requested by jury
- § 13:81 Questions by jury
- § 13:82 —Objections to
- § 13:83 Deadlocked jury

V. RETURN OF THE VERDICT

- § 13:84 Number of jurors required for verdict

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:85 Internal inconsistency of jury verdict
- § 13:86 Polling the jury
- § 13:87 —Procedure
- § 13:88 —Irregularities in procedure
- § 13:89 —Rendition and reception
- § 13:90 Jury misconduct—New trial

VI. ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

- § 13:91 Generally
- § 13:92 Judgment defined
- § 13:93 —Difference between final and interlocutory
- § 13:94 — —Importance of classification
- § 13:95 Form of final judgment
- § 13:96 —Examples
- § 13:97 Reasons for judgment
- § 13:98 —Requirement of separate opinion
- § 13:99 —Apparent conflict of judgment with assigned reasons
- § 13:100 —Procedure
- § 13:101 —Examples
- § 13:102 Signing of judgments
- § 13:103 —Place of signing judgment
- § 13:104 —Notice of signing judgment
- § 13:105 — —Request for written notice
- § 13:106 — — —Effect on appeals and new trials
- § 13:107 — —Waiver of notice of signing judgment
- § 13:108 Partial judgments
- § 13:109 —Criteria for granting
- § 13:110 —Effect on remaining issues
- § 13:111 —Examples
- § 13:112 Signing of a judgment by the court
- § 13:113 Medical malpractice cases

VII. AMENDMENT TO JUDGMENT

- § 13:114 Generally
- § 13:115 —Substantive error
- § 13:116 — —Example of substantive changes
- § 13:117 — —Example of nonsubstantive changes
- § 13:118 Generally amendment to conform judgment

VIII. COURT COSTS

- § 13:119 Generally
- § 13:120 —Determining amount

- § 13:121 —Discretionary with court
- § 13:122 —Examples of no abuse of discretion
- § 13:123 —Examples of abuse of discretion
- § 13:124 —Application
- § 13:125 —Sufficiency of evidence
- § 13:126 Type of costs recoverable
- § 13:127 —Attorneys' fees
- § 13:128 — —Limited to reasonable fee
- § 13:129 — — —Factors in determining reasonableness
- § 13:130 — —Evidence
- § 13:131 — —Examples
- § 13:132 —Expert witness fees
- § 13:133 — —Determining amount
- § 13:134 — — —Discretion of court
- § 13:135 Copy costs
- § 13:136 Generally—Offer of judgment
- § 13:137 Interest on judgments
- § 13:138 —Delictual obligations
- § 13:139 —Calculation of rates

IX. NEW TRIAL VERSUS REMITTITUR OR ADDITUR

- § 13:140 Generally
- § 13:141 —Reason for request
- § 13:142 —When additur or remittitur appropriate
- § 13:143 — —Consent of other party

X. CHECKLIST

- § 13:144 Basic requirements for a valid judgment

XI. FORMS

- § 13:145 General verdict jury form with written interrogatories
- § 13:146 Jury interrogatories—Trade Secrets Act/Unfair Trade Practices Act
- § 13:147 —Cause of action alleging violation of New Home Warranty Act
- § 13:148 —Cause of action in connection with residential renovations alleging breach of contract, unfair trade practices, negligence, and conversion
- § 13:149 —Vehicle accident—Failure to yield when entering from private road
- § 13:150 Sample special interrogatories—Medical malpractice—Hip replacement

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|          |                                                                                   |
|----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 13:151 | —Whistleblower action in connection with violation of Louisiana environmental law |
| § 13:152 | Judgment—Bench Trial                                                              |
| § 13:153 | —Jury Trial                                                                       |
| § 13:154 | Request for written notice                                                        |
| § 13:155 | Special verdict jury form                                                         |
| § 13:156 | Special jury verdict form—Products liability case                                 |
| § 13:157 | —Negligent placement of IV needle in connection with surgery                      |
| § 13:158 | Sample jury instructions—Subrogation                                              |
| § 13:159 | —Conflict in testimony                                                            |
| § 13:160 | —Actions against utility company—Defects in wiring system                         |
| § 13:161 | — —Duty                                                                           |
| § 13:162 | — —Compliance with safety codes                                                   |
| § 13:163 | —Breach of oral employment contract                                               |
| § 13:164 | —Damages—Use and enjoyment                                                        |
| § 13:165 | —Medical malpractice                                                              |
| § 13:166 | —Product liability—Truck                                                          |
| § 13:167 | Costs—Memorandum in support of motion to tax costs                                |
| § 13:168 | —Memorandum in opposition to motion to tax costs                                  |

CHAPTER 14. POST-TRIAL MOTIONS

I. MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

|         |                                                                                |
|---------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| § 14:1  | Function of motion                                                             |
| § 14:2  | —Standard used in granting or denying motion for new trial                     |
| § 14:3  | Basis of motion                                                                |
| § 14:4  | —Peremptory grounds                                                            |
| § 14:5  | —Judgment clearly contrary to law and evidence                                 |
| § 14:6  | — —Distinguished from a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict (JNOV) |
| § 14:7  | —Discovery of new evidence                                                     |
| § 14:8  | — —Due diligence                                                               |
| § 14:9  | — —Must have existed at the time of trial                                      |
| § 14:10 | — —Newly discovered evidence must be material                                  |
| § 14:11 | — — —Newly discovered evidence not sufficient to warrant new trial             |
| § 14:12 | — — —Newly discovered evidence sufficient to warrant new trial                 |
| § 14:13 | —Jury misconduct                                                               |
| § 14:14 | —Discretionary grounds                                                         |

- § 14:15 — —What constitutes good grounds
- § 14:16 — — —Jury instructions
- § 14:17 — — —Improper admission of evidence
- § 14:18 — —Insufficient grounds
- § 14:19 Scope of motion
- § 14:20 Remittitur or additur as alternative to new trial
- § 14:21 —What is excessive or inadequate
- § 14:22 —Only if damages issue is separable
- § 14:23 —Need for party’s consent
- § 14:24 Motion
- § 14:25 —Time for filing of motion
- § 14:26 —Affidavits
- § 14:27 —Hearing and argument
- § 14:28 —Time limit for judge to determine motion
- § 14:29 —Determination; review
- § 14:30 Procedure in new trial
- § 14:31 —Jury trial
- § 14:32 —Effect on appeal of original judgment
- § 14:33 —Effect on non-moving parties
- § 14:34 Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict (JNOV)
- § 14:35 —Basis of motion
- § 14:36 —Determination
- § 14:37 —Personal injury action
- § 14:38 — —Examples of
- § 14:39 —Medical malpractice actions—Examples
- § 14:40 —Appellate review

A. MOTION TO RECONSIDER

- § 14:41 Generally

II. MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT RECORD

- § 14:42 Generally
- § 14:43 —Examples

III. MOTION TO AMEND A JUDGMENT

- § 14:44 Nature of procedure
- § 14:45 Basis of motion
- § 14:46 —Altering phraseology
- § 14:47 —Errors of calculation
- § 14:48 — —Examples
- § 14:49 —Substantive vs. phraseology or calculation
- § 14:50 When judgment may be amended

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 14:51 —Notice
- § 14:52 —On its own motion or on motion of any party
- § 14:53 Motion
- § 14:54 —Court
- § 14:55 —Party
- § 14:56 —Notice
- § 14:57 —Instances where court improperly amended judgment

IV. ACTION OF NULLITY OF JUDGMENT

- § 14:58 Function
- § 14:59 Grounds
- § 14:60 —Lack of jurisdiction over defendant
- § 14:61 —Lack of subject matter jurisdiction
- § 14:62 —Incompetent person not represented
- § 14:63 —Fraud, ill practices
- § 14:64 — —Showing required
- § 14:65 — — —Disputes between counsel
- § 14:66 — — —Issues of notice
- § 14:67 — — —Judicial discretion
- § 14:68 — —Examples where annulment proper
- § 14:69 — —Examples where annulment not proper
- § 14:70 Comparison to Fed. R. Civ. P 60(b) motion for relief from judgment
- § 14:71 Procedure
- § 14:72 —Proper court
- § 14:73 —Time
- § 14:74 — —Vices of form, any time
- § 14:75 — — —Acquiescence
- § 14:76 — —Fraud or ill practices; limitation period
- § 14:77 — — —Discovery rule
- § 14:78 —Who may bring
- § 14:79 —Waiver
- § 14:80 —Effect pending appeal
- § 14:81 — —Grounds if appellate court rendered judgment
- § 14:82 —Effect of motion on right to appeal

V. CHECKLISTS

- § 14:83 Requirements for motion for new trial
- § 14:84 Requirements for JNOV
- § 14:85 Requirements for motion to amend judgment

VI. FORMS

- § 14:86 Motion to amend judgment

LOUISIANA CIVIL TRIAL PROCEDURE

- § 14:87 Petition for nullity
- § 14:88 Motion for a new trial
- § 14:89 Motion for new trial—Alternatively remittitur
- § 14:90 Motion for new trial or alternatively to amend judgment on issue of costs
- § 14:91 Motion to vacate judgment of directed verdict or in alternative for new trial with memorandum and affidavit
- § 14:92 Motion for Reconsideration of Summary Denial of Rule for Partial New Trial
- § 14:93 Plaintiffs' motion for partial judgment notwithstanding the verdict on damages only
- § 14:94 Plaintiffs' Motion for Partial Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict on Damages Only, or, in the Alternative, Motion for Partial New Trial On Damages Only and Incorporated Memorandum in Support (mesothelioma litigation)
- § 14:95 Defense Opposition to Motion for JNOV and/or New Trial

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index