

INTRODUCTION TO THE 2026–2027 EDITION

The 2026–2027 edition is once again in a softbound pamphlet that replaces and updates last year's edition.

New features and recent developments in this pamphlet include updated and new forms related to various topics on North Carolina corporation law, including: Corporate bylaws and dispute adjudication, shareholder fiduciary duties and derivative actions, merger agreements and plans for merger, operating agreement for an LLC, application for amended certificate of authority for foreign LLC, articles of dissolution, complaint against LLC member and declaration of violation of operating agreement provision governing capital contributions, derivative action by partner and partnership against another partner-Federal, accredited investor convertible shares subscription agreement; service agreement between corporation and provider; and shareholder's agreement to form foreign corporation.