

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. THE LAW OF CLOSING ARGUMENT

I. IN GENERAL

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 A note from the author
- § 1:3 Nature and purpose of closing argument
- § 1:4 Right of argument
- § 1:5 —Waiver
- § 1:6 Right to open and close; order of argument
- § 1:7 Right to open and close; condemnation cases
- § 1:8 Time of trial for closing argument
- § 1:9 Length of closing argument
- § 1:10 Interim argument
- § 1:11 Number of attorneys permitted to argue
- § 1:12 Presence of accused during argument
- § 1:13 Privilege as to argument

II. PROPRIETY AND PREJUDICIAL EFFECT OF ARGUMENT

A. IN GENERAL

- § 1:14 Scope of permissible argument
- § 1:15 Role of trial court
- § 1:16 Responsibilities of prosecutor and defense counsel
- § 1:17 Evidence and inferences from evidence
- § 1:18 Excluded, inadmissible, misstated or new evidence
- § 1:19 Hearsay evidence
- § 1:20 Polygraph tests
- § 1:21 Matters outside evidence
- § 1:22 Matters of general knowledge
- § 1:23 Arguing law
- § 1:24 —Effect of answer to special interrogatories
- § 1:25 Appealing to passion or prejudice
- § 1:26 —Local prejudice

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

- § 1:27 —Appealing to sympathy
- § 1:28 —Sample arguments
- § 1:29 Rebuttal, generally
- § 1:30 Defendant's right to insist counsel refrain from admitting guilt to avoid death penalty
- § 1:31 Arguing new matters in rebuttal

B. REFERENCES TO PARTIES, WITNESSES AND OPPOSING COUNSEL

- § 1:32 Examples of attacks on counsel
- § 1:33 Attack upon counsel—Trial court
- § 1:34 —Appellate review
- § 1:35 — —Factors
- § 1:36 —Suppression of facts by counsel
- § 1:37 Attack upon accused; improper references
- § 1:38 Attack upon accused; allowed references
- § 1:39 Attack upon civil litigant
- § 1:40 Attack upon witness
- § 1:41 Financial status of civil litigant
- § 1:42 —Prejudicial effect
- § 1:43 Financial status of accused or victim
- § 1:44 Corporate status
- § 1:45 Criminal record
- § 1:46 Service in armed forces
- § 1:47 Race, religion, or nationality
- § 1:48 Sexual orientation of accused
- § 1:49 Age or family circumstances of crime victim or accused
- § 1:50 Credibility of witness
- § 1:51 —Vouching for credibility
- § 1:52 —Demeanor of witness
- § 1:53 — —Memory issues and expert testimony
- § 1:54 — —The Libby case
- § 1:55 Character of accused
- § 1:56 The evidentiary rules as a means of getting at the truth

C. NONPRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE OR WITNESSES AND FAILURE TO TESTIFY

- § 1:57 Nonproduction by state or accused
- § 1:58 Nonproduction by civil litigant

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 1:59 —Nonproduction of employee as witness
- § 1:60 —Nonproduction of privileged witness
- § 1:61 Failure of accused to testify—Improper comment by prosecutor
- § 1:62 —Examples
- § 1:63 —Pretrial and post-trial proceedings
- § 1:64 —Harmless comments and waiver
- § 1:65 —Standards for review
- § 1:66 —Comment by codefendant’s counsel
- § 1:67 Failure of civil litigant to appear or testify
- § 1:68 Sample argument on nonproduction and failure to testify

D. DEMONSTRATIONS AND VISUAL AIDS IN ARGUMENT

- § 1:69 Use of physical objects or visual aids
- § 1:70 Computer animation
- § 1:71 Demonstrations
- § 1:72 —Clothing worn by crime victim
- § 1:73 Graphic aids for damages
- § 1:74 —Condemnation cases

E. READING OR REFERRING TO WRITINGS IN ARGUMENT

- § 1:75 Publications generally
- § 1:76 Law and law books
- § 1:77 Medical or learned treatises
- § 1:78 Trial transcript or memorandum of testimony
- § 1:79 Pleadings
- § 1:80 —Inconsistencies between pleadings and evidence

F. VERDICT AND DAMAGES IN CIVIL CASE

- § 1:81 Amount of damages sought or expected
- § 1:82 Per diem or mathematical formula for damages
- § 1:83 “Golden rule”
- § 1:84 Settlement negotiations
- § 1:85 Verdict in former proceedings
- § 1:86 Verdict in similar cases
- § 1:87 Trial court’s failure to direct verdict
- § 1:88 Insurance
- § 1:89 Workers’ compensation or other collateral benefits

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

- § 1:90 Remarriage of surviving spouse in wrongful death case
- § 1:91 Verdict in malpractice case as injuring professional reputation
- § 1:92 Income tax consequences of award

G. ARGUMENT CONCERNING GUILT AND PUNISHMENT OF ACCUSED

- § 1:93 Personal belief in guilt or innocence
- § 1:94 Degree or extent of punishment
- § 1:95 —Death penalty
- § 1:96 Plea bargaining
- § 1:97 Disposition of codefendant's case
- § 1:98 Community interest in conviction
- § 1:99 Accused's disposition to lie detector test
- § 1:100 Pardon or parole
- § 1:101 Acquittal by insanity
- § 1:102 Possible jury mistake in convicting as open to correction

H. ARGUMENT AS TO OTHER MATTERS

- § 1:103 Responsibility and duty of jury
- § 1:104 Addressing juror individually or by name
- § 1:105 Jurors' interest as taxpayers
- § 1:106 Cost of trial or defense
- § 1:107 Prejudice against crime
- § 1:108 Appeal for law enforcement
- § 1:109 Victims' rights arguments
- § 1:110 Jury view
- § 1:111 Burden of proof

III. CORRECTIVE MEASURES AND REVIEW

- § 1:112 Curative measures, generally
- § 1:113 Need for and sufficiency of objection
- § 1:114 Waiver of error
- § 1:115 Retaliation and justification
- § 1:116 Withdrawal or correction by counsel
- § 1:117 Reprimand, rebuke, and admonishment of counsel
- § 1:118 Curative instructions
- § 1:119 Incurable argument

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 1:120 Remittitur
- § 1:121 Appeal and error

CHAPTER 2. THE ART OF CLOSING ARGUMENT

- § 2:1 A note from the author
- § 2:2 Preliminary considerations
- § 2:3 General principles
- § 2:4 Organizing your closing argument
- § 2:5 —Evidence
- § 2:6 — —PowerPoint™ and other technology
- § 2:7 —Use common sense
- § 2:8 — —Sample arguments
- § 2:9 —Documents and context
- § 2:10 —Jury instructions
- § 2:11 —Your client's character
- § 2:12 —Requesting relief
- § 2:13 — —Damages
- § 2:14 Refuting your opponent's argument
- § 2:15 —Irrelevant issues
- § 2:16 —Plaintiff's inconsistent statements
- § 2:17 —Witnesses
- § 2:18 — —Classifying by type
- § 2:19 —Evidence
- § 2:20 —Reasonable doubt
- § 2:21 —Answering opponent's questions
- § 2:22 —No excuse for defendant's conduct
- § 2:23 Addressing juries
- § 2:24 Objections to opponent's closing
- § 2:25 Rebuttal
- § 2:26 Special problems
- § 2:27 Illustrative argument of plaintiff in a civil case

CHAPTER 3. ILLUSTRATIONS

I. CIVIL CASES

A. GENERALLY

- § 3:1 Introductory note from Jacob A. Stein
- § 3:2 Thoughts of Harry Gair on closing arguments
- § 3:3 Inspirational quotes
- § 3:4 Beginning the closing argument

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

- § 3:5 Defense argues “anyone can sue”
- § 3:6 Burden of proof
- § 3:7 —Sample jury instructions
- § 3:8 —Preponderance of evidence
- § 3:9 Contributory negligence
- § 3:10 —Rebuttal
- § 3:11 Credibility
- § 3:12 Damages
- § 3:13 —Punitive
- § 3:14 — —State Farm v. Campbell decision
- § 3:15 — —Sample Jury Instruction
- § 3:16 — —Corporate defendants
- § 3:17 —Defense
- § 3:18 —Full justice
- § 3:19 —Money as appropriate remedy
- § 3:20 —Message to drunk drivers
- § 3:21 —Message to corporate defendant
- § 3:22 —Size of verdict
- § 3:23 Circumstantial evidence
- § 3:24 Documentary evidence
- § 3:25 —Altering
- § 3:26 Expert testimony
- § 3:27 —Effect of Daubert
- § 3:28 —Sample Jury Instruction
- § 3:29 —Expert “types”
- § 3:30 —Comparison of testimony in condemnation action
- § 3:31 Judgment based on all evidence
- § 3:32 Learned treatises
- § 3:33 Absence of proof
- § 3:34 Absence of testimony
- § 3:35 Physical evidence
- § 3:36 Plaintiff’s argument on preexisting injury
- § 3:37 Statistics
- § 3:38 Witness memory
- § 3:39 Jury and its functions
- § 3:40 —Logic and reason
- § 3:41 —Neutrality
- § 3:42 —Obeying instructions
- § 3:43 —Representatives of country and its government
- § 3:44 Justice
- § 3:45 Lawyers and tactics

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 3:46	—Obfuscation
§ 3:47	—Offensive conduct
§ 3:48	—Personal attack
§ 3:49	—Red herring
§ 3:50	—Sincerity
§ 3:51	—Trickery
§ 3:52	—Use of notes
§ 3:53	Negligence
§ 3:54	—Comparison of negligence
§ 3:55	—Contributory negligence as an absolute bar
§ 3:56	—Contributory negligence as an admission of negligence
§ 3:57	—Ordinary care
§ 3:58	—Proximate cause
§ 3:59	—Reasonably prudent man
§ 3:60	— —Presumption of due care
§ 3:61	Sympathy for plaintiff

B. ACTIONS

1. Generally

§ 3:62	Aircraft: Accessibility
§ 3:63	Aircraft: Defense in crash case that instructor was independent contractor
§ 3:64	Animals: Tribute to a dog
§ 3:65	Antitrust
§ 3:66	Assault
§ 3:67	Attractive nuisance
§ 3:68	—Child injured
§ 3:69	— —Brain injury
§ 3:70	—Defense
§ 3:71	Auditors: Hindsight defense
§ 3:72	Automobile accidents: Punitive damages
§ 3:73	Automobile accidents: Breach of warranty
§ 3:74	Automobile accidents: Color of traffic light
§ 3:75	Automobile accidents: Corporate defendant
§ 3:76	Automobile accidents: Keys left in car
§ 3:77	Automobile accidents: Seat belts
§ 3:78	Automobile accidents: Severity of impact
§ 3:79	Automobile accidents: Bicycles
§ 3:80	Breach of contract: Good faith
§ 3:81	Breach of fiduciary duty
§ 3:82	Children: Care required of children

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

- § 3:83 —Child darts out
- § 3:84 Civil rights: Illegal incarceration
- § 3:85 Civil rights: Use of unnecessary force (choke hold) by police
- § 3:86 Civil rights: Duty to provide medical care for inmates
- § 3:87 —Sample Jury Instruction
- § 3:88 Construction: Concurrent negligence in damage to a dwelling
- § 3:89 Contracts
- § 3:90 —The obligation of a contract
- § 3:91 —Material breach
- § 3:92 —Best efforts
- § 3:93 —Construction
- § 3:94 —Good faith and fair dealing
- § 3:95 —Verdict form in case on distributorship agreement with multiple plaintiffs
- § 3:96 Defective elevator
- § 3:97 Dram shop
- § 3:98 Drunk driving
- § 3:99 False arrest: Punitive Damages
- § 3:100 False arrest: Unnecessary force (Sample Jury Instruction)
- § 3:101 False imprisonment
- § 3:102 Federal Employer Liability Act: Safe place to work
- § 3:103 Fraud
- § 3:104 Fraud: Punitive damages
- § 3:105 Fraud: In the inducement
- § 3:106 Fraud: Intent
- § 3:107 Fraud: Land fraud
- § 3:108 Fraud: Sample Jury Instruction
- § 3:109 Highways: Dangerous conditions
- § 3:110 Hospital: Standard of care
- § 3:111 Independent contractor
- § 3:112 Independent contractor: Defense
- § 3:113 Industry standards and customs
- § 3:114 Insurance
- § 3:115 Jones Act
- § 3:116 Legal malpractice
- § 3:117 Libel
- § 3:118 Libel: General damages for defamation
- § 3:119 Medical malpractice: Firemen's defense

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 3:120	Medical malpractice: Surgery
§ 3:121	Medical malpractice: Failure to monitor condition or give medication in timely manner
§ 3:122	Medical malpractice: Failure to monitor condition and provide appropriate treatment
§ 3:123	Medical malpractice: Informed consent
§ 3:124	—Injury during birth
§ 3:125	—Emergency surgery
§ 3:126	—Hepatic patient
§ 3:127	—Nurse anesthetist
§ 3:128	—Skin graft to repair torn eyelid
§ 3:129	Medical malpractice: Locally prominent physician
§ 3:130	Medical malpractice: Public opinion of physicians
§ 3:131	Medical malpractice: Judgment call
§ 3:132	Medical malpractice: Qualifications of physician
§ 3:133	Medical malpractice: Credibility of physician
§ 3:134	Medical malpractice: Truth not always beautiful
§ 3:135	Medical malpractice, abandonment and consumer protection—Alleged abandonment by a person who was not a Registered Nurse
§ 3:136	Patents: Infringement
§ 3:137	Patents: Reasonable royalty
§ 3:138	Premises security: Sexual assault at college
§ 3:139	Prison: Administrative negligence
§ 3:140	Products liability: Defect
§ 3:141	Products liability: Defense
§ 3:142	Products liability: Exploding bottle
§ 3:143	Products liability: Industry standard defense
§ 3:144	Products liability: Misuse
§ 3:145	Products liability: Pesticide
§ 3:146	Products liability: Safety device
§ 3:147	Products liability: State of the art
§ 3:148	Products liability: Testing
§ 3:149	Products liability: Tire changer
§ 3:150	Products liability: Unreasonably dangerous condition
§ 3:151	Products liability: Warning
§ 3:152	Products liability: Warranty
§ 3:153	—Breach of warranty
§ 3:154	Railroads: Crossing accidents
§ 3:155	Railroads: Dangerous chemicals

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

- § 3:156 Slip and fall
- § 3:157 Slip and fall: Business invitee
- § 3:158 Sudden emergency
- § 3:159 Taxes: Duty to pay
- § 3:160 Toxic shock syndrome
- § 3:161 Verdict form
- § 3:162 Warning sign
- § 3:163 Wilful and wanton
- § 3:164 Wills
- § 3:165 Undue influence
- § 3:166 Worker's compensation: Usual tasks of worker
- § 3:167 Wrongful death: Automobile accident
- § 3:168 Wrongful death: Medical malpractice
- § 3:169 Wrongful discharge and whistleblowing

2. Particular Personal Injuries

- § 3:170 Introduction
- § 3:171 Amputation
- § 3:172 Arm and leg injured at birth
 - Leg injury
- § 3:174 —Withered arm
- § 3:175 Arthritis
- § 3:176 Asbestosis: Damages
- § 3:177 Back injuries: Preexisting conditions
- § 3:178 Blindness
- § 3:179 Brain injury
 - In adult
 - In baby
- § 3:182 Burns
- § 3:183 Corporations
- § 3:184 Damages for personal injury
- § 3:185 Death
 - Child
 - —Defense argument
 - —Presumption of pecuniary loss to parents
 - Plaintiff
 - Of Father
 - Of Mother
 - Of Husband
 - Of Wife
 - —Foreseeability
 - —Caesarean section

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 3:196	—Value of human life
§ 3:197	— —Defendant's argument
§ 3:198	—Without dignity
§ 3:199	—Wrongful death law
§ 3:200	Earning capacity
§ 3:201	—Future earnings
§ 3:202	—Present value
§ 3:203	—Loss
§ 3:204	—Laborer
§ 3:205	—Work record
§ 3:206	Emotional distress
§ 3:207	Eye loss
§ 3:208	Future damages
§ 3:209	Hands
§ 3:210	Head injury: Brain damage and paralysis
§ 3:211	Head injury: Concussion and personality change
§ 3:212	Head injury: Displacement of skull from cervical vertebrae
§ 3:213	Head injury: Intellectual impairment
§ 3:214	Head injury: Nerve damage
§ 3:215	Health
§ 3:216	Hearing loss
§ 3:217	—Child
§ 3:218	Hernia
§ 3:219	Incontinence
§ 3:220	Impotence
§ 3:221	Inflation
§ 3:222	—Lifetime earnings based on actuarial figures
§ 3:223	Knee injuries
§ 3:224	Life expectancy
§ 3:225	—Elderly person
§ 3:226	—Mortality tables
§ 3:227	Medical malpractice
§ 3:228	Medical records
§ 3:229	Mental anguish
§ 3:230	—Breaking point of plaintiff
§ 3:231	Multiple injuries
§ 3:232	—Amounts asked for each injury
§ 3:233	Neck injury
§ 3:234	Nerve damage causing lameness
§ 3:235	Numbness
§ 3:236	Pain and suffering

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

- § 3:237 —Affecting family life
- § 3:238 —Burns
- § 3:239 —Computing value
- § 3:240 — —Defense against per diem
- § 3:241 —Duty of jury to confront and assess
- § 3:242 —Neck injury
- § 3:243 —What is pain?
- § 3:244 — —Compared with pebble in shoe
- § 3:245 —Doorway to hell
- § 3:246 — —Sad bookkeeping of tragedy
- § 3:247 Paralysis
- § 3:248 Paraplegia
- § 3:249 Pelvic injuries
- § 3:250 —Permanent disability
- § 3:251 Pleasures of life
- § 3:252 —Inability to lead normal life
- § 3:253 —Prejudices facing handicapped
- § 3:254 —Pursuit of happiness
- § 3:255 —Elderly persons
- § 3:256 Precipitation of disease
- § 3:257 Preexisting condition
- § 3:258 —Aggravation
- § 3:259 —Arthritis
- § 3:260 —Psychological problems
- § 3:261 Quadriplegia
- § 3:262 Quality of life
- § 3:263 Scars
- § 3:264 —Appendectomy
- § 3:265 —Facial scars
- § 3:266 —Leg
- § 3:267 —Scalp
- § 3:268 Slip and fall
- § 3:269 Time value of money
- § 3:270 Traction
- § 3:271 Traumatic neurosis
- § 3:272 —Defense argument
- § 3:273 —Twice injured
- § 3:274 Whiplash
- § 3:275 —Defense argument

II. CRIMINAL CASES

A. GENERALLY

- § 3:276 Abstract principles

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 3:277	—Innocence of defendant
§ 3:278	—Justice
§ 3:279	—Sympathy for defendant
§ 3:280	Alibi—Prosecution
§ 3:281	Arrest not a sign of guilt
§ 3:282	Burden of proof
§ 3:283	—Not all jurors have to believe the same thing in reaching a not guilty verdict
§ 3:284	—Failure to meet burden
§ 3:285	— —There is no victim
§ 3:286	Character and reputation
§ 3:287	—Judging as whole
§ 3:288	—Witnesses
§ 3:289	—Prosecution
§ 3:290	—Defense
§ 3:291	Circumstantial evidence
§ 3:292	—Guilt by association
§ 3:293	—Death of child
§ 3:294	—Prosecution
§ 3:295	—Untrustworthiness of inferences
§ 3:296	Closing appeal to jurors
§ 3:297	—Do not compromise
§ 3:298	—Jury’s responsibility
§ 3:299	—Prosecution—The “Black Ink” defense
§ 3:300	— —Science, silence, and the dead man
§ 3:301	—Prosecution
§ 3:302	—Would you convict on testimony of thieves?
§ 3:303	Coincidences—Prosecution
§ 3:304	Confessions
§ 3:305	—Doubts arising from confessions
§ 3:306	Conscience
§ 3:307	Conspiracy—Prosecution
§ 3:308	Criminal defense
§ 3:309	Cross-examination
§ 3:310	Defense argument—Burden of proof
§ 3:311	—None of us was there
§ 3:312	—Prosecutor
§ 3:313	— —Framing of defendant
§ 3:314	— —Opening and closing
§ 3:315	—Role of defense counsel
§ 3:316	Entrapment
§ 3:317	Defense argument—Verdict

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

- § 3:318 Evidence and oaths
- § 3:319 Evidence by anticipation
- § 3:320 Frailty of human nature
- § 3:321 Human imperfections
- § 3:322 Impossibilities and the law
- § 3:323 Indictment
- § 3:324 Insanity
- § 3:325 —Knowledge of acts
- § 3:326 —Retarded child
- § 3:327 Insanity
- § 3:328 —Deranged
- § 3:329 —Drunkenness
- § 3:330 Intent
- § 3:331 —Prosecution argument
- § 3:332 Jury
- § 3:333 —Common sense
- § 3:334 —Considering the evidence, not consequences
- § 3:335 —Elements of jury trial
- § 3:336 —Plea for honest verdict
- § 3:337 —Prejudice
- § 3:338 —Surrendering honest convictions
- § 3:339 —Jurors in the jury room
- § 3:340 —Prosecutor
- § 3:341 Lack of evidence to convict
- § 3:342 Lawyers: The defense view
- § 3:343 Mitigation and mercy
- § 3:344 Monday morning quarterbacking
- § 3:345 Motive
- § 3:346 Presumption of innocence
- § 3:347 —As first witness for accused
- § 3:348 Reasonable doubt
- § 3:349 —Defining in different ways
- § 3:350 Sentencing in a death penalty case
- § 3:351 —Defense
- § 3:352 —Prosecution
- § 3:353 —Probation and parole
- § 3:354 —Prosecution argument
- § 3:355 Suppression of evidence
- § 3:356 Suspicion
- § 3:357 Verdicts
- § 3:358 Witnesses
- § 3:359 —Character

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 3:360	—Coercion by police
§ 3:361	—Credibility
§ 3:362	— —Testimony of known perjurers
§ 3:363	— —Testimony of money launderers (“smurfs”)
§ 3:364	—Pursuit of truth
§ 3:365	—Defendant
§ 3:366	— —Failure of defendant to be called as a witness
§ 3:367	—Expert
§ 3:368	—Eyewitness
§ 3:369	—Immune witness
§ 3:370	—Informants
§ 3:371	—Police officer

B. SPECIFIC OFFENSES

§ 3:372	Arson
§ 3:373	Child abuse
§ 3:374	—Confirmatory bias of child’s interrogation
§ 3:375	Conspiracy
§ 3:376	—Elements
§ 3:377	—What is a conspiracy?
§ 3:378	—Frontal assault
§ 3:379	—Intent
§ 3:380	—Participation by defendant
§ 3:381	Driving under the influence
§ 3:382	—Defense
§ 3:383	Drug offenses
§ 3:384	—Sentence
§ 3:385	Financial failures
§ 3:386	Homicide
§ 3:387	—Contract murder—Prosecution for contract murder
§ 3:388	—Defense
§ 3:389	—Defense in the face of apparent danger
§ 3:390	—Defenses apparent danger—Battered wife
§ 3:391	— —Insanity
§ 3:392	— —Justifiable homicide
§ 3:393	— —Self-defense
§ 3:394	— — —Physical comparison
§ 3:395	— — —Retreat rule
§ 3:396	—Felony murder
§ 3:397	—First degree

- § 3:398 —Police officer as victim
- § 3:399 —Self-defense—Instruction
- § 3:400 —Vehicular homicide
- § 3:401 Political corruption
- § 3:402 Racketeering (RICO)
- § 3:403 Rape
- § 3:404 —Defense argument
- § 3:405 Robbery; sentencing
- § 3:406 Self-defense

CHAPTER 4. LEGAL MAXIMS & QUOTES

I. LEGAL MAXIMS

- § 4:1 Introduction
- § 4:2 A common sense approach to scientific evidence
- § 4:3 Act of God to Attorneys
- § 4:4 Character and Reputation to Custom and Usage
- § 4:5 Debtor and creditor to fraud and deceit
- § 4:6 Gifts and conveyances to Justice
- § 4:7 Landlord and tenant to Libel and slander
- § 4:8 Master and servant to Proof
- § 4:9 Property to Possession of Property Rights
- § 4:10 Punishment to Rights and remedies
- § 4:11 Sales to Witnesses

II. QUOTATIONS & EXCERPTS

A. QUOTATIONS

- § 4:12 Introduction
- § 4:13 Absence to Avarice
- § 4:14 Banks to Change
- § 4:15 Character and reputation to Custom and habit
- § 4:16 Damages to Experience
- § 4:17 Facts to Guilt
- § 4:18 Habit to Interpretation
- § 4:19 Jealousy to Liberty
- § 4:20 Malice to Negligence
- § 4:21 Obscenity to Punishment
- § 4:22 Quarreling to Rumour
- § 4:23 Sales to Suspicion

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 4:24 Taxes to Witnesses

B. EXCERPTS

§ 4:25 Baltasar Gracián, “The Art of Worldly Wisdom”

§ 4:26 The technique of argument through Burke/
Hamilton’s Logick

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases