§ 9B:3 —Protections against employment discrimination for medical patients
§ 9B:4 —Protections against employment discrimination for adult users
§ 9B:5 —Protections for employers to terminate employees who are medical patients or adult users
§ 9B:6 —Use of drug screening in employment and pre-employment
§ 9B:7 —Accommodations for medical patients required under state disability laws
§ 9B:8 —Federal disability laws do not protect cannabis use, but cannabis use does not negate federal protections against discrimination based on an underlying disability
§ 9B:9 —Certain federally regulated industries are excluded from state employment protections for cannabis users
§ 9B:10 Workers' compensation coverage for medical cannabis
§ 9B:11 —Many states expressly exclude medical cannabis from workers' compensation coverage

§ 9B:12 —Some states have held that medical cannabis is covered by workers' compensation absent an express statutory exclusion
§ 9B:13 —State courts are split on whether state laws requiring workers' compensation for medical cannabis are preempted by the Controlled Substances Act
§ 9B:14 No workers' compensation coverage for medical cannabis under federal law
§ 9B:15 Parent or guardian's cannabis use as a factor in custody proceedings
§ 9B:16 —Overview of the standard of proof in child custody proceedings
§ 9B:17 —Historically, a parent's cannabis use supported an adverse determination regarding fitness to care for a child
§ 9B:18 —The modern view, which courts and legislatures increasingly follow, is that a parent's cannabis use per se cannot support a determination that the parent is unfit to care for a child
§ 9B:19 —Ridgell v. Arizona Department of Child Safety
§ 9B:20 Child's use of medical cannabis as a factor in custody proceedings—Scanlon v. County of Los Angeles
§ 9B:21 Use of medical cannabis while pregnant a ground for child neglect—State v. Aguilar
§ 9B:22 Rights of medical patients to have medical cannabis administered at school
§ 9B:23 —State laws permitting administration of medical cannabis at school
§ 9B:24 —State laws prohibiting administration of medical cannabis at school
§ 9B:25 —Accommodations for medical patients required under state disability laws
§ 9B:26 —Federal laws do not compel schools to permit students to use medical cannabis while at school
§ 9B:27 —Anti-discrimination protections for students who lawfully use cannabis
§ 9B:28 Rights of medical patients to have medical cannabis administered while admitted at a hospital or long-term care facility
§ 9B:29 —Federal laws inhibit, if not outright restrict, permitting cannabis use at hospitals and long-term care facilities
§ 9B:30 —Some states permit administration of cannabis in hospitals and long-term care facilities by adopting broad definitions of "caregiver" or encouraging medical cannabis research at such facilities

§ 9B:31 —Some states limit the circumstances in which a hospital or long-term care facility can refuse to allow a patient to use medical cannabis
§ 9B:32 —Hospital and long-term care facilities have adopted varying approaches to medical cannabis use
§ 9B:33 Use of cannabis as a factor in obtaining a federal security clearance
